6 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

7 FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

9 IN RE Mortgage Electronic Registration) MDL DOCKET NO. 09-2119-JAT
 10 Systems (MERS) Litigation)

ORDER

12 In the transfer order establishing this consolidated multidistrict litigation (“MDL”), 13 the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (“Panel”) stated, “IT IS FURTHER ORDERED 14 that claims unrelated to the formation and/or operation of the MERS system are 15 simultaneously remanded to their respective transferor courts.” (Doc. #1.) The parties 16 contest which claims in each of the various cases relate to the formation and/or operation of 17 MERS.¹ This Order addresses the following twenty-one cases² transferred by the MDL
 18 Conditional Transfer Order (CTO-2) and Simultaneous Separation and Remand of Certain 19 Claims. (Doc. #107.)

First Plaintiff’s Name	Arizona Case Number	Original Jurisdiction Case Number
Shieban	CV 10-470-PHX-JAT	2:09-1939 (Nevada)

23 ¹ The parties have fully briefed this issue pursuant to the Court’s Order on Practices 24 and Procedures (Doc. #176). Although the parties sought “remand” of certain claims to the 25 transferor court, under Section 1407(a), remands to a transferor court can only be effected
 26 by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation. 28 U.S.C. § 1407; see also R.P.J.P.M.L.
 27 7.6. The Court, thus, stresses that this order is solely a determination of which claims are 28 pending before this Court and which claims remain in their respective transferor courts, pursuant to the Panel’s transfer orders.

² The additional seventeen cases transferred by the transfer order will be addressed by a separate set of briefing.

21 I. General Interpretation of the Transfer Order

22 In the initial transfer order, the Panel transferred to this Court all allegations within 23 these actions that “the various participants in MERS formed a conspiracy to commit fraud 24 and/or that security instruments are unenforceable of foreclosures are inappropriate due to 25 MERS’s presence as a party” or that otherwise concern “the formation and operation” of 26 MERS. (Doc. #1.) However, the Panel simultaneously remanded unrelated claims to their 27 transferor courts, finding that “plaintiffs’ claims relating to loan origination and collection 28 practices do not share sufficient questions of fact with claims regarding the formation and

1 operation” of MERS and their inclusion “would needlessly entangle the litigation in 2 unrelated, fact-intensive issues.” Id.

3 Accordingly, this Court will not retain claims that, although naming MERS as a 4 defendant, allege conduct primarily related to loan origination and collection practices, or 5 otherwise stray from the common factual core of the MDL. Only causes of action that in 6 essence turn on the formation or operation of MERS, no matter how framed, have been 7 transferred to undersigned.

8 Defendants Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. and MERSCORP, Inc.
9 (collectively, “Moving Defendants”) filed a Motion to Remand Claims. (Doc. #230.) Eight 10 responses were filed. Four plaintiffs responded expressing complete agreement with the 11 manner in which Moving Defendants suggested the claims be disposed. (Doc. ##372-75.)
12 Defendants Federal National Mortgage Association (“Fannie Mae”) and Federal Housing
13 Finance Agency (“FHFA”) responded in apparent agreement with Moving Defendants.
14 (Doc. ##363, 371.) One response by defendants HSBC Mortgage Services and Housekey 15 Financial Corporation (collectively, “HSBC”) disagrees as to one claim in one case. (Doc.
16 #366.) Several other defendants³ (“Responding Defendants”) have responded with some 17 different suggested classification of claims. (Doc. #367.) MERS replied. (Doc. #407.)

18 II. Claims on Which the Parties Do Not Agree

19 Within these “tag-along” actions there are several types of claims over which the 20 parties disagree. Where the parties agree as to the proper determination of a claim, the Court 21 adopts the parties’ determination unless otherwise noted.

22 A. Unjust Enrichment and Civil Conspiracy

23 Plaintiffs assert claims for “unfair enrichment and civil conspiracy” in Velasquez
24 (Sixth Claim), Villa (Sixth Claim), Hall (Fifth Claim), Hora (Sixth Claim), Shieban (Sixth

28 Loans Servicing; America's Servicing Co.; and Wells Fargo Bank.

1 Claim), and Lalatag (Fifth Claim). Responding Defendants argue that the claims in 2 Velasquez, Villa, Hall, and Hora should be split, with a part retained and a part remanded.
3 Each claim alleges that defendants defrauded plaintiffs by “charging a higher interest rate”
4 and accepting “kickbacks, profits... and gains and fee unrelated to the settlement services 5 provided at closing” and agreed to engage in a conspiracy to do so.⁴

6 Moving Defendants argue that these claims were transferred to this Court as the Panel 7 explicitly countenanced that “allegations that the various participants in MERS formed a 8 conspiracy to commit fraud” (Doc. #1 at 2) should be centralized in the MDL. However, the 9 accompanying allegations of higher charges and accepting kickbacks are separable and do
10 not relate to the formation or operation of MERS. Therefore, the claims for unfair 11 enrichment and civil conspiracy in Velasquez, Villa, Hall, and Hora will be separated. The 12 allegations of conspiracy have been transferred to the MDL and the allegations of the 13 underlying “unfair enrichment” have been remanded to the transferor courts. To maintain 14 consistency, the Court will also separate the identically worded claims for unfair enrichment
15 and civil conspiracy in Shieban and Lalatag, with a part retained and a part remanded.

16 B. Unjust Enrichment

17 Moving Defendants and Responding Defendants disagree about the status of the 18 unjust enrichment claims in Fitzwater (Sixth Claim), Boyd (Sixth Claim), and Berilo (Sixth 19 Claim). Each of these claims arises from defendants’ “deceptive scheme” to withhold “the 20 true purpose of the securitization” from borrowers.⁵ Thus, while these claims mention loan 21 origination, they share sufficient questions of fact with claims regarding the formation and 22 operation of MERS. Therefore, these claims have been transferred to the MDL.

23 C. Fraud in the Inducement

24 Moving Defendants and Responding Defendants disagree about the status of claims 25 for fraud in the inducement in Greene (Ninth Claim), Berilo (Third Claim), Boyd (Third

1 Claim), Bricker (Second Claim), and Fitzwater (Third Claim). Moving Defendants argue 2 that these claims have been transferred to the MDL, while Responding Defendants argue that 3 these claims have been split with part of each claim transferred to the MDL and part of each 4 claim remanded to the transferor courts.

5 Each of these claims contains the allegation that defendants “misrepresented the 6 ability of Plaintiffs to qualify for the loans” and other allegations relating to the loan 7 origination process.⁶ But these claims also allege that Defendants failed to disclose that they 8 “had no lawful right to foreclose upon” the properties, failed to notify Plaintiffs that “their 9 obligations on the notes had been discharged,” and other allegations related to the operation
10 of MERS.⁷

11 Moving Defendants are correct that this claim cannot be split. While the MERS-12 related misrepresentations or the non-MERS-related misrepresentations could each be 13 logically sufficient to establish liability, it may be that only all of the misrepresentations 14 together were sufficient to induce the plaintiffs to enter the contract. As these claims cannot 15 be split, they have been transferred in their entirety to the MDL.

16 D. Emotional Distress

17 Plaintiffs assert a claim for emotional distress in Greene (Seventh Claim). Moving 18 Defendants argue that this claim has been transferred in full, while Responding Defendants 19 argue that this claim should be severed with part transferred and part remanded. As this 20 claim is premised on the illegal actions alleged in all the other claims in the complaint, there 21 is no reason that both this Court and the transferor court ought not consider this claim.
22 Therefore, the claim for emotion distress has been transferred in part and remanded in part.

23 E. Claims in Kwok and *Saniel

24 Responding Defendants argue that plaintiffs’ claims in Kwok and Saniel for 25 “misrepresentation and fraud by omission,” “contractual breach of duty of good faith and fair

26
27 ⁶ See, e.g., CV 10-487-PHX-JAT (Fitzwater), Doc. #1-1 at 26-27.

28 ⁷ Id.

1 dealing,” and “fraud by obtaining signature by false pretenses” have all been remanded and 2 that plaintiffs’ claim for “civil RICO and racketeering” in Saniel (Sixth Claim) should be 3 split. Both Moving Defendants and the plaintiffs, in their response, argue that all of these 4 claims have been transferred in their entirety to the MDL.

5 These claims are vague. Responding Defendants are correct that these claims could 6 easily be construed to involve loan origination issues that should be remanded. However, the 7 Court will give additional weight to plaintiffs own construction of their claims. Plaintiffs, 8 in their responses, adopted Moving Defendants suggestion that these claims have been 9 transferred to the MDL in their entirety. (Doc. ##374-75.) Therefore, the Court finds that 10 these several claims in Kwok and Saniel relate to the formation and operation of MERS and 11 will be remain with the undersigned.

12 Accordingly,

13 IT IS ORDERED that with respect to Shieban (CV 10-470-PHX-JAT), claims 1, 2,
