The Doctrine of the Almighty Eternal Creator:

The Almighty Eternal God is the Spirit. The Spirit of God is the almighty eternal supernatural power. The Almighty Eternal God is one Spirit in three persons. The Father is the head of the family and the Master of the universe. The head of the family does not and never will have a human soul, and he will never exist in a human body form on Earth. His two children are a male and a female, and they are in nature fully God divine and fully human. These two divine children are two small portions of God the Master, and they are always in one with their Father. They are the Messiah Jesus and Divine Queen Mariette—fully divine, fully God, and fully human. These two are the first generation of human souls; while the rest of the human souls are the second generation of human life on Earth. The second generation of human souls was created in the divine image of the first two divine souls, male and female/Messiah Jesus and Divine Queen Mariette, and they were born directly from God.

Creation of Human Souls:

God said: “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and the cattle, and over all wild animals and all the creatures that crawl on the ground.” God created man in his image, in the divine image he created him; male and female he created them (Genesis 1:26–27).

“Us” and “our” created man in his image mean that there is only one Almighty God—singular—“his image.” “Us” and “our” is plural—male and female divine images through which God created human souls—male and female. The Bible tells that all living creatures, including humans have souls. While the Almighty Eternal God is only Spirit. The Spirit of God is the Almighty Eternal Supernatural Power. There are three persons in one Almighty Eternal God: the master person and two small portions. These two small portions are two persons who with God are called the Holy Trinity or one Almighty Eternal God in three persons. The Master person who is the sole owner of the universe does not have a soul, but the two small portions as two persons are fully God and fully human, and the souls of these two persons are divine! (Ref. The Doctrine of God.)

The Master and the two persons are in one Almighty God, and Genesis 1:26–27 records God as “us” and “our” (plural) who created humans, male and female in (one) image of God. This reveals to the human race that the two persons who are fully God and fully human are co-creators of all planets, Earth, and human souls. (Planets were created before the earth to support the earth’s function, such as giving daylight, weather, wind, etc.) The Master is divine materials provider and two persons (fully God and fully human Souls) did actual works. The “us” and “our” plural pronouns revealed because two (male and female) fully human Divine Souls.

The Spirit of the Almighty contains both male and female natures that mingle in one. God (the two fully God and fully human persons) created living creatures, and He (the fully God Spirit) separated genders, male and female. Genesis 1:26–27 shows the existence of humans as male and female souls, and evidence shows God as “us” and “our” are the second and third persons of the Holy Trinity, male and female divine souls created the existences of human (souls) physical bodies on earth. The two fully God and fully human souls recorded in Genesis 1:26 are also revealed in the Book of Revelation, chapter 11, as the two witnesses to the existence of the Almighty Eternal God and His creations on earth and throughout the universe.

Without exception, all human male souls are created in the image of the fully God and fully human male divine soul, and all human female souls are created in the image of the fully God and fully human female divine soul, that are revealed in Genesis 1:26–27 through God as “us” and “our.”

All living creatures’ souls arrive at the time of conception. Immediately after the time of conception, infant souls generate spirits (supernatural power) to form parts of the human natural body. During the process of growing body parts, the spirit nourishes the parts that have already been formed. After completion of forming the baby’s physical body, the baby remains inside the mother’s womb for approximately nine months. During this time, the baby shares his mother’s natural and spiritual food. When he is strong enough, at the time of birth, he separates from his mother. Souls depart from natural bodies at the time of death.

NOTE: More about human physical life begins at the time of conception, and relationships between the Almighty Eternal God and Man, and revelation entitled “Woman with Child Bring New Earth out of Heaven” under section “Invitation to the World Battle Ground for Peace and Justice.” The woman with Child Bring New Earth out of Heaven began Iceland volcano erupts. U.S. Government Monitors International Banking for Counterterrorism

The Treasury Department has been using internet banking programs containing transactions of thousands of Americans to track terrorism money since September 11, 2001. The lead official at the Department of Treasury explains the need for the program.

RealAudio | Download | Streaming Video

JEFFREY BROWN: U.S. Treasury Secretary John Snow told reporters today that the program that secretly monitors international banking records has saved American lives and has operated within the law.

JOHN SNOW, U.S. Treasury Secretary: It's a program that is entirely consistent with our democratic values, entirely consistent with our best legal traditions. And, in fact, I'd go beyond that: I'd say this is a program that builds on those traditions and strengthens them.

JEFFREY BROWN: The program began after the 9/11 attacks and centers on a little-known Belgian-based banking cooperative, the Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication, now known as SWIFT, which routes about $6 trillion U.S. dollars a day between banks, brokerages, stock exchanges and other institutions.

SWIFT functions as a kind of intermediary between financial institutions. When someone instructs his or her bank, for example, to transfer funds abroad to another party, that information is channeled through SWIFT and includes the names of both sender and the recipient, bank account numbers, and the amount of assets being transferred.

The request and information are passed onto the recipient's bank, which then transfers the requested money.

One Democrat on Capitol Hill today called the government's monitoring of these international transactions an invasion of privacy. Representative Ed Markey of Massachusetts.

REP. ED MARKEY (D), Massachusetts: The administration cannot claim that a temporary emergency lasts for five years to justify operating in secret, because potentially that means that the temporary emergency could last forever.

This administration is in violation of the United States' Constitution. In the Bush administration, there are no checks and balances to look at the American people's checks and balances.

JEFFREY BROWN: The existence of the program was revealed by several newspapers this morning. Treasury officials said they had asked some newspapers not to publish the story.

This administration is in violation of the United States' Constitution. In the Bush administration, there are no checks and balances to look at the American people's checks and balances.

JEFFREY BROWN: The existence of the program was revealed by several newspapers this morning. Treasury officials said they had asked some newspapers not to publish the story.

Following the money trail

JEFFREY BROWN: I'm joined now by one of the key people overseeing the program, Stuart Levey, undersecretary for terrorism and financial intelligence at the Department of Treasury.

And welcome to you.

STUART LEVEY, Undersecretary for Terrorism and Financial Intelligence: Thank you for having me.

JEFFREY BROWN: What was the purpose of looking at transactions that flowed through SWIFT?

STUART LEVEY: The purpose of looking at these transactions is very simple. We're trying to follow the money to identify the terrorists and to put pressure on terrorist organizations and to map out their networks.

The type of information that we were looking at and continue to look at through this SWIFT program is incredibly valuable. We're talking about international wire transfers for the most part, and that is the kind of information that can draw concrete links between two individuals.

Let me just give you an example. If you're looking at a terrorist operative, say Stuart Levey, a terrorist operative, and you know that someone has either sent him money, sent me money, or that I've sent money to another person, that's a kind of link that we're looking for and that we can follow up on.

And, in particular, if it's an international wire transfer, the kind of information that goes through SWIFT, the transactional data will give you names, addresses, phone numbers, account numbers, just the kind of concrete information that our counterterrorism officials need to follow up.

JEFFREY BROWN: And did it, in fact, lead to some success?

STUART LEVEY: It's led to a number of successes. There are a number of very successful counterterrorism investigations that have had successful conclusions where this program was one of the key factors that led to the successful conclusion of those investigations.

And that's one of the reasons why, as you indicated in your opening, we did try to talk the relevant newspapers out of publishing this story.

We've been quite open, Jeff -- as you may know, we've been quite open that we follow the money. My title is undersecretary for terrorism and financial intelligence. We're very open that we use financial intelligence to fight terrorism. That's my job.

The only thing that this story revealed, in my view, that we hadn't already made public is exactly the source and method of how we do that. And, in my view, that's quite damaging to our overall effort.

Needles in a haystack

JEFFREY BROWN: All right, now you know this has already raised a lot of questions, though, about appropriateness, about means, about even legality. There's a huge pool of transactions that go through SWIFT.

First, explain to us, what's the exact criteria for deciding which ones you're going to look at.

STUART LEVEY: I'm glad you asked me that. What we do is this: We issue an administrative subpoena to SWIFT periodically, approximately once a month. In response to that...

JEFFREY BROWN: Excuse me. Administrative subpoena means it comes from the administration, not through the courts, is what I'm getting at?

STUART LEVEY: It comes from the Treasury Department, but any recipient of an administrative subpoena, including this one, can challenge it in court if they wish to, so it compels the company to produce information.

In response to that subpoena, SWIFT has provided us a set of data which does have a lot of transactions in it, but we cannot access that data unless and until our analyst types in a specific query -- this is not general browsing around -- a specific query aimed at a specific target that is tied to terrorism and has to articulate exactly what that tie to terrorism is before any search can be done.

JEFFREY BROWN: But who is watching that? I mean, who is making that decision that the search goes forward?

STUART LEVEY: I'm glad you asked me that, too. The initial decision, of course, is made by the analyst himself or herself who takes the intelligence information about an ongoing terrorism investigation and makes a decision, in consultation with his supervisors, that this is a target that we should do financial research on.

But, as I said, we type -- that person has to enter that query and the basis for it into our computer.

And in real time, SWIFT, the company itself, is able to monitor the searches and determine if there are any questions about whether or not the connection to terrorism is strong enough. If they have any questions about it, they can stop the search in real time.

But in addition to that, on top of that, we've had an outside auditor who's been engaged for just this purpose to oversee how the government has been using this data, and that auditor has issued periodic reports.

They have access to all of these queries.

And they have determined, in report after report, that in fact the government is using the data only to conduct counterterrorism searches. And we've had a very strong record on that.

So we put appropriate safeguards in place. Our legal authority is very powerful. It's really not -- there aren't significant questions. There are no real questions about our legal authority.

And we're using it only for counterterrorism purposes. We're following the money; we're finding the terrorists. And it's having real value for the American people. I think it would be irresponsible if we weren't doing this because we have the legal authority to do it.

Checking and balancing power

JEFFREY BROWN: Well, but there have been questions about the legal authority. And there were certainly reports in the papers today and people we've talked to that referred to it as a legal gray area. What exactly is the legal authority that allows you to do it? There are protections in place, after all, for privacy of financial transactions.

STUART LEVEY: Well, actually, the Supreme Court issued a decision called United States v. Miller which held that there isn't a privacy interest in these kinds of financial transactions.

But our authority to issue this subpoena and to conduct this kind of investigation is a statutory authority. It's long-standing. It's called IEEPA. It was passed by Congress in 1977. And it's specifically designed to allow the executive branch to do just this kind of investigation and to issue just this kind of subpoena.

JEFFREY BROWN: You saw what Congressman Markey said in our set-up, and others are now questioning this, something that starts as a short-term emergency and now, they say, looks like a limitless, unchecked power by the federal government.

STUART LEVEY: Well, I have seen those comments. I look forward to discussing with Congressman Markey, because I think, when he has all of the facts, I don't think that he'll have the same concerns.

In terms of these emergencies being long-standing, under IEEPA, the statute I referred to, there are a number of emergencies that were declared by President Clinton that are still ongoing, with respect to Sudan, the Middle East peace process, Burma. These are all ongoing emergencies under the same statute that I'm referring to that President Clinton declared that are still ongoing.

I think the American people understand that the threat we face from al-Qaida is still ongoing. President Bush did declare an emergency with respect to that in September of 2001, and I don't think that there's anyone who seriously questions that that's still an ongoing threat to us.

Security vs. public interest

JEFFREY BROWN: There also were some questions about how effective a program like this still is; is it still the case that terrorists are sending money through these international financial institutions?

STUART LEVEY: You know, that's an excellent question, because, in fact, we are seeing terrorists turn more to cash couriers and other informal ways of transferring money. And that has been a trend that we've seen in recent years.

But I have to tell you: This program is still valuable. People are still sending transactions through the international financial system, through the traditional banking system, and it's carried by SWIFT, and this program is still yielding value.

My concern is that, after the revelation of exactly what data we're looking at, that the terrorists that we're fighting who are, after all, very intelligent, very adaptable, they will no longer do that and we will all be less safe as a result.

JEFFREY BROWN: And that brings me to the last question. You raised that you had asked newspapers not to publish here. The editor of the New York Times, Bill Keller, was quoted as saying he saw it as a matter of public interest, that there was this vast repository of international financial data being used, being looked at.

Do you say it is not a matter of public interest?

STUART LEVEY: Look, I don't want to question the motives or -- you know, this is a decision that Mr. Keller had to make. Our position was that the existence of this program, revealing our sources and methods, would make us all less safe and that, as long as it was established -- and I think it was -- that we were on sound legal footing, we had appropriate safeguards in place, that the only thing that would be gained by putting the story out would be to reveal the source, reveal our methods, and make us less safe, we made a very strong pitch to them that this was a story that they should not run.

Secretary Snow himself met with Mr. Keller. But, in the end, the New York Times decided to run the story, so, unfortunately, I'm doing press today.

JEFFREY BROWN: Here you are.

STUART LEVEY: So it's not press I wanted to do.

JEFFREY BROWN: All right Stuart Levey of the Treasury Department, thank you very much.

STUART LEVEY: Thank you.

INTERNATIONAL MONEY LAUNDERING ABATEMENT AND ANTI-TERRORIST FINANCING ACT OF 2001

- (1) money laundering, estimated by the International Monetary Fund to amount to between 2 and 5 percent of global gross domestic product, which is at least $600,000,000,000 annually, provides the financial fuel that permits transnational criminal enterprises to conduct and expand their operations to the detriment of the safety and security of American citizens;
- (2) money laundering, and the defects in financial transparency on which money launderers rely, are critical to the financing of global terrorism and the provision of funds for terrorist attacks;
- (3) money launderers subvert legitimate financial mechanisms and banking relationships by using them as protective covering for the movement of criminal proceeds and the financing of crime and terrorism, and, by so doing, can threaten the safety of United States citizens and undermine the integrity of United States financial institutions and of the global financial and trading systems upon which prosperity and growth depend;

4/1/2009

- (4) certain jurisdictions outside of the United States that offer 'offshore' banking and related facilities designed to provide anonymity, coupled with weak financial supervisory and enforcement regimes, provide essential tools to disguise ownership and movement of criminal funds, derived from, or used to commit, offenses ranging from narcotics trafficking, terrorism, arms smuggling, and trafficking in human beings, to financial frauds that prey on law-abiding citizens;
- (5) transactions involving such offshore jurisdictions make it difficult for law enforcement officials and regulators to follow the trail of money earned by criminals, organized international criminal enterprises, and global terrorist organizations;
- (6) correspondent banking facilities are one of the banking mechanisms susceptible in some circumstances to manipulation by foreign banks to permit the laundering of funds by hiding the identity of real parties in interest to financial transactions;
- (7) private banking services can be susceptible to manipulation by money launderers, for example corrupt foreign government officials, particularly if those services include the creation of offshore accounts and facilities for large personal funds transfers to channel funds into accounts around the globe;
- (8) United States anti-money laundering efforts are impeded by outmoded and inadequate statutory provisions that make investigations, prosecutions, and forfeitures more difficult, particularly in cases in which money laundering involves foreign persons, foreign banks, or foreign countries;
- (9) the ability to mount effective counter-measures to international money launderers requires national, as well as bilateral and multilateral action, using tools specially designed for that effort; and
- (10) the Basle Committee on Banking Regulation and Supervisory Practices and the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering, of both of which the United States is a member, have each adopted international anti-money laundering principles and recommendations.

Subject: Hello

Dear Mariette Do-Nguyen

I have read all your complaints and was with the stanbic area manage this morning, and they told me that you have been bomberding them with letters both here and USA, i said yes that you have the right. So they explained to me that Compass bank is the new name which was merged from Union, so they some times use Union or Compass. So as he said, you can still note that you are dealing with Compass so there is no problems on that area. He says you should follow them up there because the fund is now out from Africa to USA and it tis you who has to do everything humanly pssible to clear the fund, so follow up with the telebank advise. I have isseud ECOWAS letters to them for the fund. So iam waiting for results whilst you follow up from there ok. For now iam making some contacts to find out things regarding this problem and i will revert back to you ok? meanwhile all is well, don't worry too much, iam back now. Folow up from your angle and comply with the parties as the stanbic advised

Mariette Do-Nguyen

I have received all your letters and complains, but try to understand that it is hard for me here, but i must use all my power to make sure all is solved. The bank here really transfered your fund, but it was a problems over there in USA that is hitching your fund to credit into your account. The STANBIC bank here told me that is like AMERICAN government don't want this huge sum to enter into a personal account so they are trying to fraustrate you. But never give up because you have all the documents ok? iam behind you. But the bank is telling me that, they are trying to see if they could call the fund back here as you instructed, and re transfer it via central bank vault directly. But Mariette tell me the truth, has the COMPASS bank in USA told you that they are rturning your fund back to GHANA BEFORE???

The bank here told me that they are taking there time to call the fund back here because, they don't want it to come back here and enter into the bank pin code Q9 which will take time and require some documents before it comes out for re transfer. Else if the bank there releases it directly without your fund entering into the code, it would be ok. But who knows?? My not answering your call most times is because i use to be with some visitors and would not like to discuss such transaction in there front or maybe in a meeting ok? Now i want to hear from you directly, WHAT DO YOU WANT US TO DO NOW REGARDING THIS FUND STOCKED IN USA????

I know that you are going to receive the fund next week if after my meetings with bank officals, but i know that it is because of the huge sum and the USA govt. Meanwhile update me your full correspondense with the compass and the MR MORIS and the lawyer, how are you communicating with them??? They made me to undrstand that they are working real and genuine with you in making sure you get your fund, but you are in the best position to update me. Don't worry MR KOFFI KWAME must finish his promise to GOD and Humanity never panic or fear. I don't rush my things because i know whom iam and whom i serve.

Now about Dominic and Sunday, i have been taking care of them by the grace of GOD, but Dominic and sunday are going to be useful to me here and the bank in making sure your fund problems are solved as LAWYERS.

But Dominic is too worried now and could not concentrate again because of his family he left in benin since and stay here in ghana. He told me that there feeding money has finished and he don't know how the wife and the children are feeding now, so i want you to please for GOD sake and humanity sake send the just 250usd for them to buy food and eat while I take care of Dominic and sunday here until when this issue is resolved and they go back ok? Do this now. call the wife now and send her the money for them to buy food and give the children ok?? I know you will do this.

Don't worry, iam working with the bank in making sure your fund credits, GOD is in control.

Mr Koffi Kwame.

Mrs Mareitte Do-Nguyen

After all your mails and calls, i met with the bank stanbic, they told me that your fund is not here rather in USA, but because of your messages and complained, they have decided to call the fund back to African. They wanted to take there time to resolve issues because of the volume of the sum involved, but you are too harsh on the matter, thy have no option than to call the money back here in Africa and retransfer it. They said the USA govt does not want the fund to enter into an individual account there in USA because of the volume.

Maybe you are a terrorist. But you don't understand the politics in your country when it comes in terms of huge sum like this. But they wanted to use there powers to gentle enter the fund into your account via the corresponding bank, but you are refusing and calling them names. So they said if you like you can go to the local police there as you wish, then the mattr would be solved over there by you people. But never say that Stanbic is holding your fund here as they told me. I told you that iam working secretly with my contact in making sure you get the money, but is like you never beleived or trusted me again because of the politics the USA people are trying to play with you over your fund already in USA. So bear in mind that they ar returning the fund back here. But be reminded that if they return it and it enters into the Q9 code, it will take time and also need some proof and papers before it could into into the federal reserve account ghana. So it is now a game of chance as i was meant to understand.. Pray the Compass or the union back release and return the fund by direct swift into account in ghana. Taht is the news.

FINALLY. NEVER YOU ASK THE BANK TO SEND MONEY TO DOMINIC WIFE AGAIN PLS. THIS IS AN INSULT. WHO IS DOMINIC WIFE AND WHAT HAS SHE GOT TO DO WITH THIS ISSUE. PLEASE IF YOU WANT TO HELP YOUR LAWYER WHO IS SUFFERING HERE BECAUSE OF YOU AND THE FAMILY IS DIEING THERE BECAUSE OF FOOD, JUST HELP THEM AND SEND THEM YOUR MONEY OUT OF CHARITY AND FREEWILL OK. I PRAY THAT YOUR DAUGHTER GIVE YOU THE 250USD SO THAT YOU CAN SEND TO THEM TO EAT. REMEMBER GOD SAYS WE SHOULD GIVE FOOD TO THE HUNGRY AND WATER TO THE TASTE. MAYBE IF YOU HELP THEM ON THE FOOD AND WATER, GOD WILL MAKE A WAY OUT FOR YOUR FUND CREDITING FASTER. Good Luck and GOD bLESS YOU.

Subject: THE FUND NOT WITH STANBIC BANK NOW.

When you called me, i was with the bank, we are doing serious investigation on this matter because the USA govt is trying to hold on the fund because of the volume. But at moment the stanbic bank is trying to know the location of the fund in USA, but be rest assured that the fund will be released to you after the investigation going on now in USA on the fund. Ecowas is trying to collect the money into there vault, so they are dealing with the govt directly whilst they has instructed the banks to to withhold all informations without revealing, i mean the USA authority.

Dominic has sent the money to his wife, but i want to know the last date you had correspondenses with MORIS group and what they are told you i mean last. It could be that moris and group are working underground as the USA officials trying to find out matters from you. You have to be telling me all. I am working from here. I don't think it will be wide releaseing any ECOWAS contact there in USA for now as they told me they are working hard. Look your fund is in USA near your house, but AMERICAN govt is very tough on huge funds entering USA. bUT THE FUND WILL BE YOURS SOON.

You are forwarding too much than us here,i told you that we are working and you are there writing to every person you see his or her Email thereby contradicting the whole matter. Your fund is not in Ghana and we are working to credit your fund in USA acct there. Do you think that USA govt will be happy seeing you receive such fund just like that? Well the fund will be credited to your account from USA there where they are holding the fund via ECOWAS acct in USA. That is all i can say for now because the bank has assured me of getting the fund released via ECOWAS and finally to your account in USA next week.

What were you saying about FBI calling you? you have to be careful not to land yourself into problems and lose your fund again. Take things easy.I am working here and ECOWAS is working too for the fund.

Thanks

I wish to know if iam to write you on this email? iam telling you that the bank is trying there best, it is not the bank fault rather the USA authorities who are trying to fraustrate you because of the huge fund. Ths ECOWAS representatives in USA might not be happy revealing there identity to all, we rather work with them careful and slowly as they directed, they are woking while we are working too. So be rest assured and take thing easy as we solve this problems for all. Nice weekend Koffi

I got your schedule and other things you said. Now that you are going to travel, i would like to know how long you are going to stay there. The Ecowas has tried to to resolve the issue and they will bring out the crediting detail to Africa tomorrow then i would pass it over to you on the exact date of you getting the fund into your account. They assured me that the problems is solved with the banks and the authorities in USA, so they are waiting for the release of the fund to them for final crediting to you. But if it happens that the fund gets into your account while you are away, we will have no option than to wait until you are back. Meanwhile you have to get to me via email on daily basis pls. Dominic and Sunday are blocked here in Ghana and iam feeling the heat so badly here now. I pray this issue resolve soonest. If you call me on phone, you will not get me because i will not be around for calls now until i finish my fasting and prayers for 2days.

Waiting to hear from you as we wait for the final crediting date from USA.

Thanks

Revelation Revealed Future Events upon America Copyright© Mariette Do-Nguyen

Other than U.S. District Court Case CV 10-1413-PHX-NVW use, all copy required permission.

The following revelation meanings are exactly meanings of Chapter 12 of the Book of Revelations. The only different is the Almighty Eternal Creator replaced current existing symbols for many of symbols revealed and recorded in the Bible, for human to understand future events upon the United States of America, that result from past, current and future activities in Europe, Middle East, and West Africa.

During the night before dawn of July 13, 2006, while I was in bed, there was a spiritual battle with an enemy force that was attacking my lower left leg. I saw white skin and black stripes on the lower side and a narrow white belly of an extremely long and alive snake that was above the West-Atlantic shore of Europe, above the United Kingdom, France, and Spain, and all the way over West Africa along the shore of the Atlantic Ocean— Morocco, Mauritania, Ghana, Togo, and Benin. The other section of the skin was a giant solid flat mattress of extremely heavy and thick black smoke that was entirely over the continents of Europe, Africa, and the Middle East. The snake had recently passed a part of the Asian continent, and it was there swirling his head to either fight or run away through the airspace above the continents of Europe and Africa before it headed to the United States of America. The giant side of the body of the snake was his head. It moved sideways toward the west. I saw the side of its body swirling sideways for over the Atlantic Ocean, and I saw the Atlantic Ocean was very narrow between Canada, Maine, and New York all the way to West Africa and Europe.

I then saw the Bible open to Chapter 12 of the Book of Revelation, the section that says, "The serpent spewed a torrent of water out of his mouth to sweep the woman away with the current. But the earth helped the woman and opened its mouth and swallowed the flood that the dragon spewed out of his mouth. Then the dragon became angry with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring." I continued to see that "The woman fled into the desert where she had a place prepared for her by God."

Then the Bible's page was removed from my dream, and a mass of black thick smoke appeared several hundred yards in front of my face while I was laying face up. As I looked carefully, there was another mass of smoke to its east. Between and above them was group of about a dozen loose dark masses of smoke.

While I looked through the space between the two thick masses, I saw one right above me and over the Pacific Ocean, out of Western California, and another mass began at the west side of Arizona. I did not see the other ends of these two low thick black smoke masses. The top groups of about a dozen small and loose masses mingled with white clouds that were in between these masses. Some of them had already disappeared into the atmosphere. I thought the one above me would drop on top of me, and a great fear immediately rose in me, because I knew that black smoke is symbolic of the devil's destructive supernatural power. md

1 of 6

Suddenly, the heavy black smoke above my face moved to the end of Eastern and beginning of the Northern California, and divided the State of California equally as North and South. The thick heavy black smoke without a snake belly was then entirely covering the United States of America, including Northern California, and it was covering Canada. Everything was covered except for Southern California where my physical body was laying on the bed.

I looked up, and above Southern California, and over the Pacific Ocean, but not reaching all the way to Hawaii—there was very clear and good air, and I saw a light blue sky. At this point, I felt safe and happy that the Almighty Eternal Master of the universe, my divine biological Father, had prepared this place on earth for me. Therefore, if the North Korean government aims its nuclear long-range missile at Southern California, surely without wrong it will not reach the target! If North Korea or any country's government aims missiles at the Southern State of California, they will murder their own people instead.

I then saw that I was a little child, naked from head to toe, climbing on top of a small wooden shelf at the center of a large white wall. While my two hands held the front corner, I drew all my strength and climbed on top of the shelf. About a dozen yards in front of me but on the ground, there was a little child smaller than me. She was kneeling at the step of a rectangular flat form along the wall below the wooden shelf where I was sitting. While she was watching me climb to the top of the shelf, in a loud voice, she said to me, "You put out four thousand dollars, and you reserved one hundred twenty thousand dollars for yourself." She meant my capital was only four thousand, and the difference was my profits. I knew that she was talking about how I did not lose money after I sent cash to scammers.

Immediately after she finished her statement, I saw I was already sitting on the small square wooden shelf. I was crossing my legs to hide my genitals from her, and I was sitting inside eight corners of a white chiffon rectangular canopy, with my left side next to the wall, and my right arm toward public view. While I was seeing myself little, I translated the meanings of her statement: Four thousand is symbolic of holiness, the number twenty is symbolic of discernment, and one hundred thousand symbolizes obedience. "I live a life of holiness, obeying my divine biological Father's commandments. His almighty eternal supernatural power is in me."

I then saw a vision that I saw in the year 1997, during the Blessed Sacrament exposition and throughout the Sunday noon services, I saw the right upper arm of my divine biological Father above Saint Andrew's Cathedral sanctuary. During the night before dawn of July 13, 2006, I saw myself as a little girl with my right upper right arm was facing the rectangular room, and my front was facing west. My upper arm and my face were facing in exactly the same directions that my divine biological Father at the time he appeared to me in year 1997. I quickly realized the narrow square wooden shelf was serving as an altar, and my divine biological Father's authority was within me. In other words, everything I (as the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's heir) do is accompanied by His almighty eternal supernatural power from the beginning to the end. All things that I have done, and all things that I will do, in the natural realm, are destined to prevail. The small child was kneeling on top of a single step, complaining that after I lost money to scammers, I earned a lot of profit from investing four thousand dollars capital. She is symbolic of powerful nations' government leaders who convert to the Almighty Eternal God in the future, and scammers are nd symbolic of worldwide government officials who refuse to convert, and lose eternal life for their souls after their earthly lives.

A serpent (or snake) is the central focus, and it is symbolic of the devil. The dark smoke symbolizes the devil's supernatural power. White clouds and angels are symbolic of the Almighty Eternal Master's supernatural power or the Almighty Eternal God's presence within human souls. White smoke is symbolic of good works without sincerity and love, or the performance of services in exchange for benefits. Services in exchange for benefits are counterfeit forms of the work of God—generated by people who look for benefits! Spiritual ministers and people, who work full-time for religious non-profit organizations, receive salaries for their daily living. They have sincere hearts and love for others that they serve; they are real servants to the Almighty Eternal God.

The thick black smoke snake is symbolic of the serpent's torment of water, or the devil's most destructive supernatural power. Clear and good quality air space is symbolic of the region under the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's divine power that resides within people that obey the Almighty Eternal Master's laws. They are being protected, guided, and blessed by Him.

The areas such as France, the United Kingdom, Spain, Canada, several countries in West Africa, and many countries near South Africa and the Middle East have the most destructive of the devil's supernatural power that is generated through human minds and actions in their daily lives activities. The dream shows where the devil resides. The devil's destructive supernatural power is strong, and while it is there, it will act through human minds and natural actions through hatred, generating poison chemicals and mass destructive weapons, wars, murder, violence, lies, scams, mental illnesses and physical diseases, genocide, and many others serious crime activities.

The devil's destructive supernatural power is shown in the shape of people's faces, the texture of their skin, their eyes, the style and texture of their hair, the way they dress, their tone of voice, and the words they use in conversation. In order for any individual to make correct decisions, he or she must depend on the Almighty Eternal God's supernatural power of discernment. The people who receive this gift seldom speak out about what they know about others; because these people are not fortunetellers nor psychic, they do not judge other, but they are the Almighty Eternal God's true servants. They keep to themselves for protect the work that the Almighty Eternal God entrusts to them.

There was thick black smoke close to my face at one point in the dream, and I feared that it was symbolic of the devil wanting, through human minds and actions, to strike God's on-going creation of the earth and human life on earth. Worldwide lawmakers, judicial officers, and atheists commit grave sins. They reject Messiah Jesus and my fully God nature accompany our fully man, and they reject me as the Almighty Eternal Master's heirs. They further reject teachings, warnings, and orders that the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe entrusted to me, Divine Queen Mariette. In a blink of an eye, the thick black smoke in my dream moved toward South-Eastern California, covering it from west of Arizona, central California, and throughout the entire United States of America, including Hawaii and Alaska. Above Southern California, the airspace was clear. This is symbolic of the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe predestining and preparing Southern State of California for me ^{WA} on natural ground, where the physical Kingdom of Heaven—World Divine Government's headquarters would be located. The devil's supernatural power is prohibited in this region. The destructive devil supernatural power has legal right to destroys people in other regions throughout the global, because people on earth are giving this devil right to destroy them by they disobey the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's laws.

The thick black smoke, without a snake belly, that is above the United States is symbolic of the devil's supernatural power being weaker there (as it roams through human minds and natural activities) than it is where the snake belly is alive and moving. In other words, hatred, violence, murder, wars, lies, and many other serious financial crimes are growing faster in Europe, Africa, and the Middle East, while in the United States of America it is weakening.

The rectangular room where I was a little girl, and I climbed up and sat on the square narrow shelf, while a smaller girl was kneeling and complaining that I gave money to scammers but still earned a lot of profit from a small capital investment means the following: Money is symbolic of the Almighty Eternal Master's authority. Scammers symbolize people disobeying the Almighty Eternal Master's laws. My appearance as a small child is symbolic of the spirit of the truth. The square shelf (altar) is symbolic of holiness, and the wood symbolizes how I embrace a great amount of suffering to benefit the human race (just as my elder brother Messiah died in order for man to learn from Him). My appearance as naked is symbolic of my fully God nature being fully revealed to the human race. The smaller child is symbolic of the religious ministers who have strong faith in the Almighty Eternal God but lack holiness. They were led to wrongly interpret the meaning of the scriptures. The child's complaint symbolizes their lack of understanding that the result of sin is destruction, and each destruction leads to greater destructions being built on top. They do not acknowledge their wrongs and make changes. Instead, they blame God for allowing the devil to destroy them and others.

There are several examples: The Almighty Eternal Master gave me warning after warning, I delivered them to United States government leaders, and they ignored the warnings. This eventually led to the terrorist attack in America on September 11, 2001.

I reported to the United Nations Security Council members and United Kingdom government leaders regarding the Barclay Bank Plc employees' illegal and bizarre conduct of during the process of transfer the 10.6 million U.S. dollars donation from a late African man to my Divine Mission. I warned them that if they did not impose international banking laws on the bank's employees for the 10.6 million U.S. dollars to be transferred to its rightful beneficiary, Rebuild My Church Divine Mission—terrorists would attack United Kingdom. None of them responded to the warning, then suicide bombers attacked the London subway, and killed 52 people and many others were wounded.

Before United States President deployed American troops to Iraq, I sent warning to United States government leaders, and filed complaint in the United States District Court. The warning and complaint indicated that if the government used taxpayers' dollars to invade Iraq, the government was violating freedom of religion that is protected in The First Amendment of the United States Constitution, because this invasion would nd cause a lot of death. The United States government leaders and judicial officers chose to violate The United States Constitution and the Almighty Eternal Master's laws, that led to a lot of death and destroyed structures in Iraq.

World government leaders love their decisions against the Almighty Eternal Master's laws. This leads them to hole after hole, until they are in the bottom of many giant holes. They then complain about God. According to world government and spiritual leaders' minds, they are always right, and God is always wrong. They are always right, and other country leaders are always wrong. They say to their brothers, "Let me remove that splinter from your eye" while the wooden beam is in their eye, and they are not seeing!

World government and spiritual leaders are fighting against one another about murdering adults, children, unborn children, destroying eternal life of human souls, and structures. When rights were violated by breaking of the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's laws, the Almighty Eternal Master issued the following ultimatum:

In the dreams before dawn of July 16, 2006, I saw various individuals, an American lawyer, Philippino man, and several other strangers. They had stolen great amounts of new wood bars that I had cast from a stage on dirt ground. I said to them, "You are thieves! You stole all my wood." Immediately after the dream, my divine biological Father said to me in Vietnamese, "Daughter, you must offer this cup to me, your Father!" While I was wondering what he really meant, my beloved Father said to me, "She is about to give birth to a child, and you must talk to her." My divine Father used a natural event as symbolism, and I was wondering who He was really talking about. He continued in Vietnamese, "Lack of respect, lack of education!" I then heard my divine Father say, "When it comes to religion, people are unable to talk about it, because they blindly believe. She is unable to say anything to you and keep silent." She is symbolic of government and religious leaders. My divine biological Father's words revealed exactly of the way United States government and Christian leaders had acted toward me for last twelve years.

I then saw thick black smoke covering the United States soil in my dream before dawn of July 13, 2006, and my divine Father said, "The United States must convert before other countries throughout the world." Because my divine biological Father ordered me talk to her, I asked, "Father, what would you like me to do?" My divine biological Father gently said to me, "Daughter, you send God's discipline to the human race revelation to the United States Congress."

The pregnant female has a child, and her silence is symbolic of the minds and actions of the people of the United States of America, because my dream on July 13, 2006, the thick black smoke covering the United State's soil appeared after His words that explain the pregnant female and her child symbolic of. The Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe scolds United States government leaders for their lack of respect to foreign countries' government leaders, and for their government policies. The religious leaders stiff necks and hold strong on to their incorrectly meanings of the scriptures.

The revelation reveals the guilty verdicts upon legislators and judicial officers for they passed laws, and their rulings that give rights to women, doctors, and nurses to murder unborn children through abortions, judicial officers' daily practices badly harm the Almighty Eternal Master's on-going creation of human life on earth. They further harm creation through same-sex partners and same-sex marriages. These judicial officers dwell within the devil's supernatural power. They further invite the devil's supernatural powers to enter students' and teachers' lives by preventing students and teachers from conducting prayer in public school. This action indirectly forces students and teachers to turn their backs to the Almighty Eternal God and embrace the destructive devil. These judicial officers are too afraid of the devil, and they order the removal from government buildings and public lands of The Ten Commandments, crosses, and religious monuments, so that they can worship the devil through statues of deceased and living humans, raising them to positions of status.

The fact is that, as long as United States government leaders and judicial officers refuse to comply with the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's laws, they continue badly damaging American people's and the global public's earthly lives, and the lives of their souls. Global destruction will only get worse, because indirectly the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe appointed the United States government to act as the elder brother for its younger brothers and sisters throughout the world to follow. While the United States government leadership on the destructive path, the International government also on the destructive paths with them.

This means that the United States government and spiritual leaders must fully end all thought and actions that violate the laws of the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe. They must comply with all His laws in order to lead the American people correctly, so that the international community can then follow them.

The Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe is directly giving out orders for various levels of destructive supernatural power to discipline the human race in the spiritual realm, especially world government and spiritual leaders, lawmakers, judicial officers, and terrorists such as Al-Qaeda and Hamas, because all of them are rebels to His laws.

The revelation came in my dream revealed the Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe's peace, love, healing, and sincere service will grow from Southern California, and no human on earth can prevent this. Various regions throughout the globe will be spared. Which countries or regions will receive quicker benefits depends on government leaders, lawmakers, judicial officials, religious leaders, and all individuals' obedience to God, the Master of the Universe's laws. While those refuse to convert and obey the Almighty Eternal Master's laws, they must pay greater amount than they damage others. The Almighty Eternal Master and sole owner of the universe has control over planets, the Earth, and everything above, below, and on Earth, and all details revealed above must fulfill with all cost to human race! md

IMMIGRATION REFORM PROCEDURES

NOTE: The Immigration Reform Procedures came directly from the Almighty Eternal Creator to His Messenger for Human on earth, and it is His decree of rules and regulations that all people on earth must comply. It is The World Capital State is symbolic of each and all states in the United States of America, and all country throughout the global.

Census registration and Guest Worker programs are for the following purposes: (1) all people must comply with their own country and other country's laws and regulations; and (2) all people must be responsible and liable to pay taxes to their own country and the countries where they live and work as guest workers, for governments provide public services to all people. Each and everyone must pay their due taxes in order to receive these benefits! The purpose census registration and guest worker program procedures for archive and keep peace, justice and prosperity, and prevention of felony crimes - such as terrorist activities, war, murder, violence, robbery, kidnapping, rape and molestations, and prevention of other injustices.

SECTION XXII: World Capitol State Census Registration and Guest Worker Program.

SECTION XXII.01: December 6, 2002. After various dreams were given to me, Mariette Do-Nguyen by the Almighty Eternal Creator, who Mariette beloved Father and Almighty Eternal Father of all human souls. The Almighty Eternal Creator is the Master of the universe, who is the sole owner of all His creations. He ordered census registration, which includes the Guest Worker Program for illegal immigrants, so they can become legal guest workers. The discipline of His natural laws must always be complied with. I, Mariette heard Him say to me, who is His Messenger of Covenant as following:

"After the Kingdom of Heaven's physical headquarters is formed on the parcel of land named California (symbol) , you are to issue an order to world government leaders for me: each and all countries must take a census!

"Name the physical land of the Kingdom of Heaven's Headquarters 'Divine Queen World Capital City' of the World Capital State.' The order must issue as follows:

"All United States citizens and legal immigrants who reside inside the 'Divine Queen World Capital City' age eighteen and older are to obtain World Capitol State identification cards from the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, and carry these cards with them at all times. It is their permanent identification as citizens and legal immigrants. These three official identifications are proof they legally reside in the World Capital State.

"The World Capitol State identification cards must be honored by global governments and businesses as the first of all legal identifications and documents! These identification cards do not show Kingdom of Heaven citizenship, they only allow people to reside in the World Capitol State's premise and work."

(The Almighty Eternal Creator means there are three kinds of identification, the first type is a permanent citizenship card for natural born and naturalized citizens. The second type is for legal immigrants, and the third type is for guest workers. These three types of identification cards must be accepted by all legal government agencies as the top priority of all identification cards.)

SECTION XXII.02: The Almighty Eternal Creator continued, "A month before the beginning of the registration date, United States law enforcement agencies must crack down and remove all illegal immigrants from the World Capitol State premises, deport all of them out of the World Capital State." He continued, "The illegally immigrants employed longer than one year before the census registration, they must obtain affidavits from their employers, certify of they will hire them within time limit, and they apply for guest worker permit after census registration completion."

SECTION XXII.03: The Almighty Eternal Creator continued, "The requirement for registration is two pieces of identification, one of the two identifications must have a photo. Parent(s) must register for all of their children who reside at their same address. The World Capitol State residents sworn oath registrations do not change their United States citizenship and legal immigrant status. The World Capital State (Kingdom of Heaven World Divine Government Executive Office) must issue to each and all World Capitol State residents a number according to the county of their residence."

SECTION XXII.04: The Almighty Eternal Creator continued, "After census registration is completed, before each person moves into the World Capitol State, they must apply for and be approved for residency before they actually relocate their families. The request and approval also applies to businesses before they actually conduct their businesses. After a person, family or business moves out of the World Capitol State premises, he loses his residence permit. If he comes back, he must apply and be approved before he returns. Tell foreigners, 'The Almighty Eternal God decrees people must not step on the World Capitol State's soil illegally!' Because all are dealing with the most high God, explain to them the consequences of entry without legal approval documents."

SECTION XXII.05: Take a census of the whole community of the Israelites; by clans and ancestral houses, registering each male individually, you and Aaron shall enroll in companies all the men in Israel of twenty years or more who are fit for military service. Num. 1:1-3

God the Master and sole owner gave a census decree upon all worldwide governments and their official leaders. As His Messenger of Covenant, His mighty Spirit within me, Mariette, He has full control of my soul, my mind, my physical body and all my words and actions. I clearly understood His decree step-by-step registration and maintenance processing as following for comply with His decree:

a. All people who reside in the World Capitol City must comply with census registration procedures. All persons age eighteen and older must appear at the registration office with two pieces of identification and be photographed and fingerprinted to obtain their World Capitol City's identification cards. The census registration for a resident's identification card is a legal resident permit. It is not a permit for citizenship of the Kingdom of Heaven or citizenship of World Capital State. nd

(Kingdom of Heaven citizen symbolic of eternal life for human souls, and World Capital State citizen symbolic of country or states in the union citizens.)

b. The Resident Identification Card of "Guest Worker Permit" gives an individual legal status as a guest worker, and temporary residence in the World Capitol State, State where that country's government issued the Guest Worker Permit.

These individuals will NOT become citizens of the country which issued the "Guest Worker Permit" unless he or she is married to a citizen of that country. All individuals who hold a Guest Worker Permit must file and pay income taxes to the country where he is holding the Guest Worker Permit and in the country where he holds citizenship.

(1). Guest Worker become citizen and revoke citizenship of the World Capital State: The Guest Worker Permit individual must have a "genuine" commitment of marriage for life to a person of the opposite sex, who is a citizen of the country where he or she holds the guest worker permit. He or she must comply with the country's immigration procedures for citizenship.

(2). If a civil divorce is finalized, the citizenship of the former spouse who was guest worker became citizen result of married to citizen of the World Capital State is automatically revoked.

(3) In the case of a fraud marriage, with hard evidence, both husband and wife must be imprisoned for ten years. The Guest Worker Permit automatically be revoked on the first day the individual sentenced to prison, and after he finished his sentence, World Capital State deport he to his country of origin as indicated on the Guest Worker Permit.

(4) Parent(s), grandparent(s), spouse and children of an individual who holds a Guest Worker Permit are his or her dependent(s). Once the guest worker leaves the country all their children who are born during the time of service must return with him. Once they reach the age of eighteen, they can return to their birth country where they may hold citizenship as an adult. Returning citizen's original birth certificate is required to reenter their birth country, where it must be verified by the immigration agency before obtaining the Resident Identification Card.

c. Once a person or family permanently moves out of World Capitol State land, they must notify the City, and their residence permit will be automatically terminated. They must obtain new residence identification cards from the new city or state within thirty days from the day of their previous residence termination. If they do not comply within the time limit, a fine for the delay must apply, and the late fee may vary, depending on the city.

d. A resident's identification card number is good for one hundred fifty years from the date of it issue, or thirty years after the individual's death. The card number may contain as many numbers as needed for population growth. The card must specify the country, state, county, city, and village. Names of the country, state, county, city and village can be specified with certain abbreviations. All of the resident's identification card information must be stored in the State data base with certain government agencies, where authorizers have twenty-four hour access for homeland security purposes.

e. A separate set of Resident Identification Card numbers contain special coding for World Royal First family, her relatives, and God's servants who reside in the World Capitol City (of the World Capitol State.) This set of resident's identification card begin with "WCS-KH" (abbreviation for World City State – Kingdom of Heaven), then county, city, village.

f. If a person reapplies for a World Capitol State residence permit, he must provide his previous Resident Identification Card number. If the number has not been issued to anyone else, he needs to file a claim for it, and it must be approved.

g. All people age eighteen and older must appear at the Census Registration Offices for photographs and finger prints. Each person requires two (2 inch by 2 inch) photos, one for the permanent file and another for the Resident Identification Card. Two forms of identification are required to show residence address, such as a valid driver license, DMV identification, mortgage payment statement, utility or phone bill, rental agreement, or automobile registration. Two documents must bear the same name of one person, wife or husband. Husband and wife must provide a marriage certificate. If one piece has the wife's name, another has the husband's name, the documents will be invalid. All documents must show the same address, which will be registered as the residence.

h. An entire family must come at one time for verification of documents presented to census workers. All documents provided to the Census Offices must cover everyone in the family. After a family registers a for certain address, no others can register under the address already recorded with the Census Office. The system will reject a duplicate address. If more than one family resides at the same exact address, all of them must register at the same location and at the same time. A notation for the number of families registering at the same address will be provided.

i. New tenants or new property owners registering after the first registration period must provide rental or Deed of Trust documents, and these documents must be confirmed before deleted previous register from the address, and added to the new register to the address.. The person named on the documents presented must sign a sworn statement under penalty of perjury for other family of the facts of their registration information. Fraudulent information for this paragraph is ten years in prison.

k. Biological parent(s) with children under the age of eighteen must bring children's birth certificates for registration. Birth certificate and marriage certificate information must match to qualify for registering children. Adoptive parent(s) must bring their child's or children's legal documents, and these documents must be confirmed by issuers. Information must match before the registration goes into effect. Children under eighteen years old do not need to be present at the Census Registration Offices, because they will not receive a Resident Identification Card. They must appear at the Census office when they become 18 years old for resident identification card.

SECTION XXII.06: Registration is mandatory for everyone who resides in the World Capitol State during this census period!

a. The resident under eighteen years old must be issued a Certificate with nd a resident number, along with the parent photo identification cards. This certificate must be exchanged for the resident photo identification card when the child reaches the age of eighteen.

b. Exchanging the Certificate of Identification must be done within thirty days after reaching the age of eighteen, unless there are major circumstances for the delay. Otherwise, a heavy penalty will be fined upon the parent and the child.

c. Parents must provide the Census Official with their photo identification card issued previously by the Census office. Census officials must verify the parent(s)' identification and it must match the database before approving the applicant's identification card. All newborn babies are registered through services provided by hospitals and authorized healthcare providers.

d. Before World Capitol State residents move out of the City, a family member representative must report to the World Capitol State census office. Former World Capitol State residents must apply for Resident Identification Cards before moving back from other states/nations, and the application must be approved before they move in the City. Within 14 days after they move back to World Capitol State, they must appear at local World Capitol State Census Office and register, and obtain World Capitol State Resident Identification Cards.

e. Persons moving to the World Capitol State for the first time must apply for residence. The application must be approved before they move in. Within 14 days after arrival they must appear at the World Capitol State census office for their Resident Identification Cards and Certificates for children.
