17 ORDER

18 The Ninth Circuit has issued its mandate in this case, remanding this matter to the 19 Department of the Interior for reconsideration in light of the Ninth Circuit's opinion.
20 Doc. 165. The Court of Appeals has provided no guidance on the role of this Court with 21 respect to the remand. This Court in other cases has entered an order remanding the 22 matter to the federal agency and setting a date by which the agency shall complete its 23 consideration on remand. The Court has required the new agency decision to be filed by 24 the deadline, and has required the opposing party to indicate, within 30 days of the new 25 decision being issued, whether it continues to contest the agency action, in which event a 26 scheduling conference is held to address briefing with respect to alleged flaws in the new 27 decision. On or before July 31, 2013 the parties shall file a joint memorandum setting 28 forth their position on whether such an order should be entered in this case, and, if so, what time periods should be included, or whether the Court should take some other action
