WO

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Nickie Miller,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Wyeth LLC f/k/a Wyeth, Inc.,
Wyeth Pharmaceuticals,
Pfizer, Inc., individually and as Successor
-in-Interest to Pharmacia & Upjohn
Company,
Defendants.

No. CV 10-2693-PHX-JAT

ORDER

Currently pending before the Court is Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to File Second Amended Complaint (Doc. 32). The Court now rules on the Motion.

Motion to Amend

In her Motion for Leave to File a Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiff requests leave to affirmatively plead the discovery rule and fraudulent concealment. Plaintiff does not seek to add new causes of action. Plaintiff filed her Motion to Amend before the August 1, 2011 deadline set in the Court’s Scheduling Order.

The Court should “freely give leave [to amend] when justice so requires.” FED.R.CIV.P. 15(a)(2). Whether to grant a motion to amend depends on the following factors: (1) undue delay, (2) bad faith, (3) prejudice to the opposing party, (4) futility of amendment, and (5) whether plaintiff has previously amended the complaint. Western Shoshone Nat’l. Council v. Molini, 951 F.2d 200, 204 (9th Cir. 1991). The most important

1 of these factors is prejudice to the opposing party. United States v. Pend Oreille Pub. Util.
2 Dist., No. 1, 926 F.2d 1502, 1511 (9th Cir. 1991).

3 Defendants do not argue undue delay or bad faith on the part of Plaintiff, nor do they
4 argue they will suffer prejudice – the most important factor – if the Court grants the Motion
5 to Amend. Defendants argue that the proposed amendments would be futile and that Plaintiff
6 has amended her complaint many times already.

7 Defendants argue Plaintiff has not alleged sufficient facts in her proposed amendment
8 to entitle her to tolling of the applicable statute of limitations based on either fraudulent
9 concealment or the discovery rule. Without opining whether the proposed amendments
10 would survive a motion to dismiss, the Court finds Defendants have not demonstrated that 11 amendment would be futile. The Court will not address the merits of Plaintiff’s claims and 12 Defendants’ statute-of-limitations defense on a Motion to Amend.

13 Defendants also argue that Plaintiff should not be given further opportunity to amend 14 because she already has had several opportunities to amend. In making this argument,
15 Defendants mistakenly rely on the procedural history of various prior lawsuits that included
16 Plaintiff’s claim. In the case pending before the undersigned, Plaintiff has amended her 17 complaint only once before. The Court therefore disagrees with Defendants’ assertion that 18 Plaintiff has had several opportunities to amend her complaint.

19 Because the Court finds that amendment would not be futile and that Plaintiff has not 20 repeatedly amended her complaint in the pending case and because Defendants have not 21 argued undue delay, bad faith, or prejudice, the Court will grant the Motion to Amend.
22 Plaintiff will have five (5) days to file her Second Amended Complaint.

23 Accordingly,
