12 v.

13 Grace Xunmei Li,
14 Defendant.

No. CV-12-00482-PHX-DGC

FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER

15 For reasons set forth in the Court's previous decision (Doc. 215), the Court finds
16 in favor of Plaintiff United States of America. The Court enters the following judgment:

17 1. Grace Xunmei Li's certificate of naturalization (No. 28 687 569) is hereby 18 cancelled.

19 2. Defendant Li is precluded from claiming or exercising any rights,
20 privileges, or advantages of United States citizenship based on her May 5, 2005
21 naturalization or any document which evidences her citizenship based on her
22 May 5, 2005 naturalization.

23 3. By September 26, 2014, Defendant Li shall surrender to counsel for the 24 United States her original certificate of naturalization (No. 28 687 569) and any United 25 States passport issued to her.

26 4. The Court understands that, between now and September 26, 2014,
27 Defendant Li shall seek to obtain an I-94 card reflecting her status as a lawful permanent 28 resident alien. Based on statements by counsel for the government at a hearing on

1 September 9, 2014, the Court understands that the I-94 card will be issued immediately
2 and will reflect Defendant Li's lawful permanent resident status. The Court also 3 understands that Defendant Li can then apply for a new green card and will receive one in 4 due course.

5 5. Defendant Li shall file a motion to stay the effect of this judgment by 6 October 3, 2014. The United States shall file a response by October 7, 2014. Defendant
7 Li shall file a reply by October 24, 2014.

8 6. The United States shall hold Defendant Li's certificate of naturalization and 9 passport at the office of the United States Attorney in Phoenix, Arizona until this Court
10 and, if necessary, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, has ruled on her motion to stay. If 11 either Court grants the motion to stay, the United States shall promptly return the 12 certificate of naturalization and passport to Defendant Li.

13 Dated this 10th day of September, 2014.
