10 Petitioner,

11 v.

12 Charles L Ryan, et al.,

13 Respondents.

No. CV-13-00498-PHX-DGC

ORDER

14 On March 7, 2013, Petitioner James Leon Walker, who is confined in the Arizona
15 State Prison Complex in Florence, Arizona, filed a pro se petition for writ of habeas 16 corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 challenging his 2001 convictions for attempted child 17 molestation and attempted sexual conduct with a minor, and the trial court's imposition 18 of an aggravated 15-year term of imprisonment to be followed by lifetime probation. The 19 Court dismissed the petition for lack of jurisdiction with leave to amend on June 10, 20 2013, because Petitioner had failed to allege that he was in custody in violation of the 21 Constitution or the law or treaties of the United States. Doc. 8. Petitioner filed an 22 amended petition on June 13, 2013. Doc. 9. On July 23, 2013, the Court dismissed the 23 amended petition without prejudice and with leave to amend because it found that the 24 petition still lacked any statement that Petitioner is in custody in violation of the 25 Constitution or the law or treaties of the United States. Doc. 10.

26 Petitioner filed a second amended petition on July 30, 2013. Doc. 11. United 27 States Magistrate Judge David K. Duncan issued a report and recommendation ("R&R") 28 recommending that the second amended petition be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

1 Doc. 23. Petitioner filed objections to the R&R on January 21, 2014. Doc. 24. The 2 Court will accept the R&R and dismiss the second amended petition, but it will do so 3 without prejudice.

4 I. Background.

5 Following his 2001 conviction in state court, Petitioner filed a petition for writ of 6 habeas corpus on December 8, 2004. This Court dismissed the petition as untimely on 7 March 15, 2006. See Doc. 18 in CIV-04-2817-PHX-DGC (DKD). On November 29,
8 2006, Petitioner filed a second petition for writ of habeas corpus in which he challenged 9 the same convictions and sentences. On February 22, 2007, this Court dismissed the 10 petition without prejudice in order to allow Petitioner to seek leave from the Ninth Circuit
11 Court of Appeals for certification authorizing the district court to consider the petition.
12 See Doc. 11 in CIV-06-2863-PHX-DGC (DKD). The court of appeals denied 13 Petitioner's application for authorization to file a second petition. Doc. 22 at 152. This 14 case involves Petitioner's third petition challenging the 2001 convictions and sentences.
15 Petitioner has not obtained certification from the court of appeals to file a successive 16 petition.

17 II. Discussion.

18 Before filing a second or successive petition for writ of habeas corpus in federal 19 district court challenging the same conviction, a state prisoner must move in the court of 20 appeals for an order authorizing the district court to consider the petition.
21 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3)(A). Respondent argues that this Court lacks jurisdiction to 22 consider the petition because Petitioner has not obtained an order from the court of 23 appeals authorizing this Court to consider the petition. Doc. 22 at 4. Petitioner appears 24 to argue that the Court should nevertheless consider his petition because it granted him
25 two opportunities to amend his petition and because Respondent's assertion that this 26 Court lacks jurisdiction is untimely. Doc. 24 at 2. Petitioner has cited no authority for 27 his arguments and has not argued that his petition is not successive. The Court agrees 28 with Respondent that it lacks jurisdiction to consider Petitioner's successive petition at

1 this time. See Burton v. Stewart, 549 U.S. 147, 157 (2007) (holding where petitioner did 2 not receive authorization from the court of appeals to file second or successive petition,
3 “the District Court was without jurisdiction to entertain [the petition.]”). The Court, 4 however, will dismiss the case without prejudice so that Petitioner can seek certification
5 from the Ninth Circuit to file a second or successive section 2254 petition.

6 The Court will direct the Clerk of Court to provide Petitioner with a form 7 recommended by the Ninth Circuit for filing an Application for Leave to File Second or 8 Successive Petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 or Motion Under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

9 IT IS ORDERED:

- 10 1. Petitioner’s Second Amended Petition (Doc. 11) and this action are 11 dismissed without prejudice, and the Clerk of Court must enter 12 judgment accordingly.
- 13 2. The Clerk of Court must provide Petitioner with a copy of the form 14 recommended by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals for filing an 15 Application for Leave to File Second or Successive Petition Under 28
16 U.S.C. § 2254 or Motion Under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.
