9 James A. Lester III,

10 Petitioner,

11 vs.

12 United States of America,

13 Respondent.
14

No. CV 13-1083-PHX-DGC (JFM)

ORDER

15 Petitioner James A. Lester III, who is confined in the Arizona State Prison-
16 Kingman, Hualapai Unit, in Kingman, Arizona, filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas 17 Corpus Ad Prosequendum. (Doc. 1.) Petitioner has also filed a Request for Final 18 Disposition of Probation Revocation Cause/Charges-Person in State Custody Pursuant 19 to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. (Doc. 2.) The Court construes the Petition as 20 one brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. The Court will summarily deny the Petition and the 21 Request, and dismiss this action.

I. Background

22 On January 28, 2004, Petitioner, in United States v. Lester, CR 02-00922-002-23 PHX-FJM (D. Ariz. 2002), pled guilty to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 24 50 kilograms or more but less than 100 kilograms of marijuana. Petitioner was sentenced 25 on May 10, 2004, to 27 months in prison followed by 3 years on supervised release.¹ On 28 ¹ See United States v. Lester, CR 02-00922-002-PHX-FJM (D. Ariz. 2002) (Doc. 318).

1 June 24, 2009, a petition to revoke supervised release in Petitioner’s federal criminal case 2 was filed and an arrest warrant was issued.² On December 11, 2009, Petitioner was 3 convicted in Maricopa County Superior Court, case CR2009-136857, of possession of 4 marijuana for sale (more than 4 pounds) and sentenced to 5 years’ imprisonment in the 5 Arizona Department of Corrections.³ Petitioner is currently serving his state-court
6 sentence in the Arizona State Prison-Kingman. On December 16, 2009, the United States
7 Marshal lodged a detainer against Petitioner pursuant to the arrest warrant issued by the 8 District Court based on the petition to revoke supervised release in Petitioner’s federal 9 criminal case. (Doc. 1, Ex. A.)

10 In his Petition, Petitioner seeks to “be brought to trial within 90 days of the filing 11 of this request” and “hopes to resolve the complaint, warrant, and detainer, in a timely 12 manner so that justice may be served.” (Doc. 1 at 2.)

13 II. Federal Habeas Relief Not Available

14 Petitioner’s petition must be dismissed as habeas relief is unavailable. There is no 15 constitutional right to disposition of supervised release violation charges prior to the 16 expiration of a separate sentence. See Moody v. Daggett, 429 U.S. 78, 89 (1976) (holding 17 that parolee, imprisoned for a crime while on parole, was not entitled to an immediate 18 parole revocation hearing on an unexecuted warrant for parole violations and detainer 19 lodged with his present institution of confinement); Gagnon v. Scarpelli, 411 U.S. 778, 20 783 (1973) (finding that rights of probationers and parolees in revocation hearings are 21 fundamentally identical). It is only upon execution of a warrant and custody under that 22 warrant that a petitioner’s liberty interests are affected. Moody, 429 U.S. at 87 (“loss of 23 liberty as a parole violator does not occur until the parolee is taken into custody under the 24 warrant”).

25
26 ² See United States v. Lester, CR 02-00922-002-PHX-FJM (D. Ariz. 2002)
27 (Docs. 465, 466).

28 ³ See <http://www.courtminutes.maricopa.gov/docs/Criminal/122009/m4013001.pdf>
(last visited Aug. 5, 2013).

1 Petitioner here does not contend that the warrant issued has been executed or that 2 he has been taken into custody pursuant to that warrant. Thus, he has no right to 3 disposition of the supervised release violation warrant prior to the expiration of his 4 current sentence. See id. at 86-87; see also United States v. Garrett, 253 F.3d 443, 447-5 48 (9th Cir. 2001) (government's postponement of plaintiff's revocation hearing until 6 release from state custody does not violate 18 U.S.C. § 3583(i)). Accordingly, 7 Petitioner's Petition and this action will be summarily dismissed.

8 IT IS ORDERED:

9 (1) The Petition (Doc. 1) and Request (Doc. 2) are denied and this action is 10 dismissed.

11 (2) The Clerk of Court must enter judgment accordingly and close this case.

12 (3) Pursuant to Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing Section 2255 Cases, in the 13 event Petitioner files an appeal, the Court declines to issue a certificate of appealability 14 because reasonable jurists would not find the Court's procedural ruling debatable. See 15 Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000).

16 Dated this 13th day of August, 2013.
