6 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

8 Shirley M. Medina,
9 Plaintiff,

10 vs.

11 Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner
12 of Social Security,
13 Defendant.

No. CV-13-1760-PHX-LOA

ORDER

14
15 This appeal arises on the Commissioner's Motion to Stay Defendant's Magistrate
16 Judge Election Form. (Doc. 16) The Motion indicates that "[o]pposing counsel has 17 authorized counsel for the Government to state that the Plaintiff has no objection to this 18 motion." (Id., ¶ 5 at 2)

19 In light of the lack of funding resulting from the Government's shutdown and the 20 prohibition of non-essential governmental employees from performing voluntary services,
21 there being no objection, and good cause appearing, the Commissioner's Motion will be 22 granted. Commissioner will be ordered to notify the Court in writing when funding resumes,
23 upon which the Court will lift the stay and enter appropriate orders.

24 Accordingly,

25 IT IS ORDERED that the Commissioner's Motion to Stay Defendant's Magistrate
26 Judge Election Form, doc. 16, is GRANTED. This appeal is hereby STAYED pending the 27 resumption of funding for the Department of Justice and the Social Security Administration.

28 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Commissioner shall notify this Court in writing
when funding for the two agencies resumes, upon which the Court will issue an order to lift

1 the stay and enter appropriate orders.

2 DATED this 11th day of October, 2013.
