16 On May 5, 2014, the Court ordered Defendant, who removed this case to federal 17 court, to file a supplement to the notice of removal which established federal subject matter
18 jurisdiction by May 23, 2014, or the Court would remand this case. Defendant failed to file 19 the required supplement.

20 Further, On May 13, 2014, Plaintiff moved to remand this case arguing there was no 21 federal subject matter jurisdiction. Defendant failed to respond to that motion.

22 Because Defendant has failed to establish a basis for federal subject matter 23 jurisdiction,
