EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No: 3:22-cv-08152-SPL

LOWE'S HOME CENTERS, LLC,

Defendant.

PROPOSED CONSENT DECREE

I. RECITALS

1. This matter was instituted by Plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), an agency of the United States, alleging that Defendant, Lowe's Home Centers, LLC ("Lowe's"), engaged in unlawful sex discrimination in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"), as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000c, et seq. by (1) subjecting Heather Kaino and Chris Bucolo and others to a hostile work environment because of sex at its Lake Havasu City location; and (2) by forcing Heather Kaino to resign employment because of alleged sexual harassment, including the Defendant's failure to remedy or prevent the sexual harassment of her. Defendant has denied all Plaintiff's allegations that it violated Title VII. Each party agrees that this Consent Decree is not an admission of the claims or defenses of the other party.

2. The Parties to this Decree are the Plaintiff EEOC, Intervenor Kaino and Bucolo, and the Defendant, Lowe's Home Centers, LLC, also known as "Defendant" or "Lowe's".

3. The Parties, desiring to settle this action by an appropriate Consent Decree (“Decree”), agree to the jurisdiction of this Court over the Parties and the subject matter of this action and agree to the power of this Court to enter a Consent Decree enforceable against Defendant.

4. As to the issues resolved, this Decree is final and binding upon the Parties and their successors and assigns.

5. Defendant and their officers, agents, employees, successors, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them will not interfere with the relief herein ordered but shall cooperate in the implementation of this Decree.

6. To amicably resolve disputed claims, the Parties jointly request this Court to adjudge as follows:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

II. JURISDICTION

7. The Parties stipulate the jurisdiction of the Court over the Parties and subject matter of this action and have waived the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law.

8. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action for the duration of the Decree to enter all orders, judgments, and decrees which may be necessary to implement its terms and the relief provided.

III. TERM, SCOPE, AND ISSUES RESOLVED

9. Term: The duration of this Decree shall be three (3) years from the date of signing by the Court.

10. Scope: The terms of this Decree shall apply to the Lowe's Lake Havasu, Arizona location and the Human Resources District staff who have responsibility for the Lake Havasu City location, which is currently District 885.

11. Issues Resolved: This Decree resolves the claims alleged in the above-captioned lawsuit and constitutes a complete resolution of all of the Commission's claims of unlawful employment practices under Title VII that arise from Charges of Discrimination Number 540-2018-04027 and 540-2019-03646- filed by Heather Kaino and Chris Bucolo, respectively.

12. Non-Waiver of EEOC Claims: Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude EEOC from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in accordance with the enforcement provisions of Section VIII ("Enforcement of Consent Decree"). Neither does this Decree preclude EEOC from filing lawsuits based on charges not resolved in this Decree.

IV. MONETARY RELIEF

13. In accordance with this Decree, and in full settlement of all monetary claims asserted by the EEOC, Defendants agree to pay the total amount of $700,000 ("the Settlement Amount") to resolve this matter with respect to the EEOC's claims on behalf of Heather Kaino, Chris Bucolo, and Daya Ward, as well as Heather Kaino's claims and Chris Bucolo's claims as plaintiff-intervenors.

14. Within thirty (30) days of the later of (1) the entry of this Decree; (2) Defendant's receipt of an executed Release in the form attached as Exhibit A to the Decree from each of the Claimants; or (3) the receipt of the necessary tax documents to process payments under this Decree (Forms W-9 from Heather Kaino, Chris Bucolo, and Daya Ward, and a W-4 from Heather Kaino). The Defendant shall pay Heather Kaino $158,355 as back pay and $1,345 to Heather Kaino for reimbursement for medical expenses. Lowes shall pay $219,747.50 to Heather Kaino, $186,147.50 to Chris Bucolo, and $134,405.00 to Daya Ward as compensatory damages for emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and other compensatory damages, permitted by the Civil Rights Act of 1991.

15. Payments designated "back pay" shall be reported on IRS Form W-2. The Defendant shall be responsible for paying its share of payroll taxes for "back pay" and, in accordance with a newly submitted W-4, withholding applicable payroll taxes owed by Heather Kaino. Payments designated as "compensatory damages" shall be reported on IRS Form 1099 by Defendants by January 31, 2023, and shall not be subject to withholdings.

16. The Defendant will not condition the receipt of individual relief upon Heather Kaino's, Daya Ward's, and Chris Bucolo's agreement to: (a) maintain as confidential the terms of this Decree or the facts of the case; (b) waive her statutory right to file a charge with any federal or state anti-discrimination agency; or (c) promise not to reapply for a position at any of Defendant's facilities in the United States.

20. Requests for Employment References and Letters of Reference: Should any prospective employer request a reference for Heather Kaino, Daya Ward, and/or Chris Bucolo, or should Heather Kaino, Daya Ward, and/or Chris Bucolo wish to seek an employment reference for their employment at Defendant, they shall direct all such requests to Lowe's designated employer reference telephone number, The Work Number, currently: 1-800-367-2884. The Work Number shall respond to reference requests by providing their respective dates of employment and final job title. The Defendant shall also provide a letter of reference that states that her performance of duties was satisfactory, the dates of employment, position(s), and the fact that they are eligible for rehire, in the form attached as Exhibit B.

VI. EQUITABLE RELIEF

A. Injunctive Relief

22. Defendant, their officers, agents, successors, and other persons in active concert or participation with them, are enjoined from engaging in reprisal or retaliation of any kind against any person because of such person's opposition to any practice made unlawful under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. The Defendant shall not retaliate against a person because such person brings an internal complaint of discrimination with the Defendant; because such person files or causes to be filed a charge of discrimination with the Commission or any other agency charged with the investigation of employment discrimination complaints, or whose statements serve as the basis of a charge; or because such person testifies or participates in the investigation or prosecution of an alleged violation of Title VII. The Defendant shall not retaliate in any manner against individuals identified as witnesses in this action or who assisted in the investigation giving rise to this action. Nor shall Defendant retaliate against any such persons identified as a witness of discrimination in future investigations or proceedings.

B. EEO Policy and Record-Retention Review

23. Within sixty (60) calendar days of the entry of this Decree, the Defendant shall review and, if necessary, revise its existing EEO policies, including any sexual harassment or retaliation policies. The Defendant must adopt and/or maintain a comprehensive policy against sexual harassment and retaliation.

24. The Defendant's written policies related to EEO and sexual harassment and retaliation must include at a minimum:

24.6. A detailed explanation of how harassment and/or retaliation complaints or reports can be made by employees, including but not limited to providing the contact information for the Associate Care Center (which can be accessed online through Lowe's intranet or by calling a designated toll-free number) to whom employees can report their concerns about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, and alternatively inviting employees to make such complaints to any manager, who can be reached either in person or by calling the store general switchboard;

24.7. A clear explanation of the steps an employee must take to report discrimination or retaliation, which must include the options of either an oral or written complaint;

24.8. An assurance that Defendant will investigate allegations of any activity that might be construed as unlawful discrimination and that such investigation will be prompt, fair, and reasonable, and conducted by a neutral investigator specifically trained in receiving, processing, and investigating allegations of discrimination;

24.9. An assurance that appropriate corrective action will promptly be taken by Defendant to eradicate the unlawful conduct within its workforce and take appropriate corrective and remedial action;

24.10. A description of the consequences, including specific disciplinary actions up to and including termination, that will be imposed upon violators of Defendant's anti-discrimination policies;

24.11. A policy of maintaining confidentiality for persons who report unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, or who participate in an investigation into allegations of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation whenever feasible;

24.12. An assurance of non-retaliation for persons who report unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, and for witnesses who provide testimony or assistance in the investigation(s) of such unlawful discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation; and

24.13. An assurance that Defendant views retaliation against any individual who reports harassment as intolerable conduct that will be addressed promptly.

25. Within thirty (30) calendar days after completion of the policy review required under this Decree, those written EEO policies and specific policies addressing sexual harassment and retaliation shall be distributed to each current employee of the Defendant at the Lake Havasu, Arizona facility in written form (including by electronic means). For the duration of the Decree, the written EEO policies, anti-harassment policies, and anti-retaliation policies shall also be distributed in writing (including by electronic means) to all new employees when hired by Defendant at its Lake Havasu, Arizona location. The Defendant shall make the written EEO policies, anti-harassment policies, and anti-retaliation policies available in alternative formats if Lowe's becomes aware of the need for employees and applicants with disabilities and/or for persons who do not read English.

26. Defendant shall review and, if necessary, revise any policies or procedures it has regarding the creation of and/or maintenance of records relating to complaints of sexual harassment and/or retaliation, including all verbal or written complaints. To the extent that no policies or procedures exist, they must be created. The Defendant shall assure that all supervisors, managers, human resources personnel, as well as any persons responsible for receiving and addressing employee complaints, do the following:

26.1. Document in writing, any complaint of harassment and/or retaliation, even if the complaint is oral or the complainant does not want to provide a written statement.

26.2. Interviews of all available potential victims and witnesses identified, including the individual(s) alleged to have participated in or condoned the unlawful conduct. If a potential witness is on leave or has left the employ of Lowe's, Defendant will attempt to contact the witness at their last known phone number and address.

26.9. Have in place a system of preservation, for all original records of complaints and subsequent investigations that ensure the preservation of all documents for no less than 5 years (unless a complaint is filed, in which case pertinent records must be maintained until that complaint is resolved).

26.10. The record-retention system shall, at a minimum, require that all records, including records of oral complaints, written complaints, anonymous complaints, notes of contact with complaining parties, notes of witness interviews, and any other materials pertaining to a complaint of sexual harassment, be promptly delivered to a clearly-designated, neutral custodian of records for the Defendant's employees working at the Lake Havasu facility and shall be retained by the Corporate Human Resources staff.

C. Training

27. Defendant shall provide annual EEO training, anti-harassment training, and anti-retaliation training for all its employees at its Lake Havasu, Arizona location, pursuant to this Paragraph 27 and the subparts below for the duration of the Decree. Under this provision, employees will be trained at a minimum in the following areas: (a) the Defendant's policy and procedures for reporting alleged sexual harassment or retaliation; (b) understanding the kind of conduct that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment and retaliation; (c) the penalties of engaging in sexual harassment or retaliatory behavior; and (d) Defendant's non-retaliation policy. All training under this Paragraph shall be at Defendant's selection and expense. The annual training sessions required for all types of employees listed below must be a live and interactive training session, although it need not be conducted in person and rather can be conducted by some other means (e.g., online interactive training), so long as the employees have the ability to ask questions to be answered by the trainer during the training session. The training will be conducted as follows:

27.1. Non-managerial Employees: Within one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days of entry of this Decree and each year for the duration of this Decree, Defendant will provide annual sex harassment and retaliation training for its non-managerial employees at the Lake Havasu location. The training would be mandatory and would be a minimum of one (1) hour. The training may be videotaped or otherwise recorded in an appropriate format so that any non-managerial employee who is unable to attend the scheduled training session will be trained within sixty (60) days of the scheduled training. New non-managerial employees hired after the annual training referenced above will receive the same or similar training within thirty (30) calendar days of being hired. The training under Paragraph 27.1 may be provided by outside vendors or a qualified Human Resource or Legal Professional employed by Defendant.

27.2. Managerial, Human Resources, and Supervisory Employees: Within one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days of entry of this Decree and each year for the duration of this Decree, Defendant will provide annual managerial, supervisory, and human resources training for Store Managers, Assistant Store Managers, and Human Resources District staff who have responsibility for the Lake Havasu location, which is currently District 885. The Defendant will require all individuals in these roles to receive at least two (2) hours for supervisors and managers and three (3) hours for all Human Resources District staff training addressing sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and retaliation Defendant shall emphasize with managerial and supervisory employees that due to their position of power, such employees (a) must be particularly vigilant not to discriminate, whether consciously or because they rely on subconscious stereotypes; (b) must be sensitive of how their actions or words might be perceived by subordinate employees, and (c) must avoid the temptation to retaliate against an employee because a complaint is made, or might be made, against them. Additionally, Defendant will require employees who are newly hired or recently promoted into a Store Manager or Assistant Store Manager for operations at the Lake Havasu to complete at least two (2) hours of sexual harassment and retaliation training within twenty (20) days of being hired or promoted. Defendant will also require employees who are newly hired or recently promoted into a Human Resources District staff, which is currently District 885, to complete at least three (3) hours of sexual harassment and retaliation training within twenty (20) days of being hired or promoted.

27.3. Training on Investigative Techniques: All employees with responsibility for responding to or investigating complaints of discrimination and/or harassment made by Defendant's employees at its Lake Havasu, Arizona location, which also includes Human Resources for District 885, shall be provided two (2) additional hours of annual training instructing on accepted professional standards for receiving and investigating complaints of discrimination, including such matters as witness interview techniques, other evidence-gathering techniques, maintaining investigative notes and records, an analysis of whether the investigation shows a violation of Lowe's policies addressing sexual harassment and retaliation, and methods for eliminating and ameliorating violations of anti-discrimination law. The training under Paragraph 27.1 may be provided by outside vendors or a qualified Human Resource or Legal Professional employed by Defendant. The training requirement in Paragraph 27.3 for the first year of the Decree (only) can be satisfied by comparable investigative technique training received by the employees specified in this Paragraph within the six (6) months prior to the entry of this Decree.

28. Defendant agrees that training attendance under Section 27.1, 27.2, and 27.3 will be tracked in a manner that permits Defendant to provide EEOC a registry of attendance as required by Paragraph 35.1 below.

Upon entry of this Decree and for the duration of this Decree, Defendant agrees that where it finds harassment or retaliation occurred at the Lake Havasu location, discipline will be administered to any such employee promptly and proportionately to the conduct or behavior at issue and the severity of the infraction of Defendant's anti-harassment and anti-retaliation policies. In administering discipline pursuant to this Paragraph, Defendant agrees that they will take reasonable steps to maintain consistency of discipline and avoid any appearance that any particular type or level of an employee receives undue favor.

31. Defendant certifies that William “Bill” Wetzel has not been employed by Defendant at any of Defendant’s facilities or business locations in the United States since January of 2019, and agrees that Wetzel will not be reemployed by the Defendant or any affiliated company of the Defendant’s at any time during the term of this Decree. "Report of retaliation" refers to retaliation for making a "report of sexual harassment" as defined in this paragraph. A "report of sexual harassment" and/or "report of retaliation" need not invoke the terms "discrimination," "Title VII," "disparate treatment," "violation," or "rights," etc. Employees are not trained in legalese and frequently use such terms as "unfair," "unprofessional," "uncomfortable," "unjust," "retaliatory," "treated differently," or "disciplined without or for no reason" and other such languages that reasonably indicates an allegation of discrimination.

The report will include:

- a. The name, address, email address, and telephone number of each person making a complaint of sexual harassment or retaliation for resisting or reporting sex harassment to Defendant or any federal, state, or local government agency;
- b. The name, address, email address, and telephone number of each person identified as a witness to the incident of harassment and/or retaliation;
- c. A summary of each complaint, including the date of the complaint, the name of the individual(s) who allegedly engaged in the sexual harassment and/or retaliatory conduct, the Defendant's investigation and response to the complaint, the name of the person who investigated or responded to the complaint, and what, if any resolution was reached; and 35.1. For each training program required under this Decree, and conducted during the reporting period, Defendant shall submit a registry of attendance or certificates of completion.

35.2. For each training program conducted by an outside consultant or vendor, Defendant will identify the consultant and/or vendor and provide a copy of the program agenda.

36. Posting of Notice: Defendant shall recertify to the Commission that the Notice required to be posted under this Consent Decree has remained posted during the reporting period, or, if removed, was promptly replaced.

37. Policy Review: Defendant shall report on the status of the EEO, anti-harassment, and retaliation policy review process required above.

38. Record Keeping: Defendant shall report on the creation and/or revision of any records keeping policies or practices required by this Decree, as required above.

39. Letter to Wetzel: Defendant shall send a copy to the EEOC of the letter Defendant sends to Wetzel within three (3) days it is mailed to him and shall retain a copy for the duration of this Decree.

VIII. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF DECREE

40. This Court shall retain jurisdiction of this cause for purposes of compliance with this Decree and entry of such further orders or modifications as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate equal employment opportunities for employees.

41. There is no private right of action to enforce Defendant's obligations under the Decree and only the Commission, or its successors or assigns, may enforce compliance herewith.

42. The Commission may petition this Court for compliance with this Decree at any time during which this Court maintains jurisdiction over this action. Should the Court determine that Defendant has not complied with this Decree, appropriate relief, including an extension of this Decree for such period as may be necessary to remedy its non-compliance, may be ordered. Absent extension, this Decree shall expire by its own terms at the end of the 36th month from the date of entry without further action by the Parties

43. In the event the Commission believes Defendant has failed to comply with its obligations under the terms of this Consent Decree, the Commission shall notify Defendant in writing stating with specificity what provision(s) of the Consent Decree it believes Defendant has failed to comply with and provide Defendant 30 days to remedy any non-compliance. If following the 30 days, the Defendant has still failed to become compliant, the Commission may petition this

Court for compliance with this Decree at any time during the period in which this Court maintains jurisdiction over this action. Should the Court determine that Defendant has not complied with this Decree, appropriate relief, including an extension of this Decree for such period as may be necessary to remedy its non-compliance, may be ordered.

IX. EEOC AUTHORITY

44. With respect to matters or charges outside the scope of this Decree, this Decree shall in no way limit the powers of the Commission to seek to eliminate employment practices or acts made unlawful by any of the statutes over which the EEOC has enforcement authority, and do not arise out of the claims asserted in this lawsuit.

X. COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES

45. Unless otherwise indicated, each party shall be responsible for and shall pay its own costs and attorney's fees.
