Pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' Motion to Appear Telephonically at the May 23, 2007 Preliminary Pretrial Conference (Doc. 67).

Due to the nature of the case and the recent filings of the parties, the Court has decided that it is appropriate to change the Preliminary Pretrial Conference to a Status Conference. Consequently, parties need not attend the conference and counsel may appear telephonically. Counsel should be prepared to brief the Court on their respective positions regarding (1) the transfer of the case to Tucson; and (2) the status of the default proceedings against Bruce A. Sholes.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Rule 16 Preliminary Pretrial Conference has been changed to a Status Conference to discuss the motions pending before the Court and the default against Bruce A. Sholes.
