10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 Unknown Stevens, et al.,

13 Defendants.
14

No. CV-16-00561-TUC-DCB

ORDER

15 Plaintiff is a pro se prisoner who has filed an action alleging civil rights violations.
16 See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(B)(iv) (exempting from Rule 26 initial disclosure requirements
17 actions brought without an attorney by a person in custody); LRCiv. 16.2(b)(2)(B) (setting 18 case management deadlines for cases designated on the detainee track). The following 19 Scheduling Order, entered pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 16, shall govern the course of this 20 action:

21 IT IS ORDERED that the parties abide by the following:

22 1. Any motion for summary judgment regarding exhaustion of administrative 23 remedies shall be filed within 60 days of the filing date of this Order. Albino v. Baca, 24 747 F.3d 1162 (9th Cir. 2014). If such a motion is filed by that date, discovery is stayed 25 and the deadlines set in this scheduling order are continued to begin running from 26 the date the motion for summary judgment is resolved. If no such motion is filed by 27 that date, the following scheduling order is entered:

28 2. The deadline for disclosure of all lay and expert witnesses is: 120 days from the

1 filing date of this Order or 120 days from the filing date of the Order resolving any 2 motion for summary judgment regarding exhaustion.

3 3. All discovery shall be completed by: 150 days from the filing date of this 4 Order or 150 days from the filing date of the Order resolving any motion for summary
5 judgment regarding exhaustion. Parties are reminded that they are not to file the actual 6 disclosures with the Court, just the notices of disclosure.

7 In the event of a dispute over discovery matters, parties are cautioned to first engage 8 in personal consultation regarding the dispute and to make a sincere effort to resolve the 9 conflict. The parties should act to resolve discovery disputes quickly. The moving party 10 must certify that after consultation, the parties have been unable to resolve the matter.
11 LRCiv. 7.2(j).

12 4. Dispositive motions, other than the exhaustion motion, shall be filed by 30 days 13 from the completion of discovery.

14 Motions, including dispositive motions, shall be set for oral argument, if requested
15 by counsel, and at the discretion of the Court. A party desiring oral argument on a motion
16 shall request argument by placing “Oral Argument Requested” immediately below the title
17 of the motion or response, pursuant to LR Civ. 7.2(f). The Court will set oral argument 18 accordingly.

19 When any pleadings or memoranda are appended with more than one exhibit, the 20 exhibits shall be divided by tabbed dividers, and there shall be a table of contents for the 21 exhibits. All documents shall be secured on the left-hand side either by a staple or in some 22 other fashion so that pages can be turned without the document falling apart. This applies 23 to an original filed under seal and all copies. JUDGE’S COURTESY COPIES ARE 24 REQUIRED, which “shall reference[] the specific document number, [and] shall be 25 printed directly from CM/ECF.” See LR Civ. 5.4; Administrative Policies and 26 Procedures Manual § II.D (emphasis added).

27 Pursuant to LR Civ. 7.2(i), failing to file the requisite responsive memorandum or 28 failing to appear at oral argument may be deemed a consent to the granting or denial of any

1 motion, and the Court may dispose of the motion summarily.

2 5. The parties shall file their joint proposed pretrial order by: 30 days from the 3 close of discovery or 30 days from the filing date of the Order resolving any dispositive
4 motion filed after discovery is completed.

5 6. The pretrial conference will be set upon receipt of the joint proposed pretrial 6 order. The parties responsible for trial of the lawsuit shall appear and participate in the 7 Pretrial Conference. At the pretrial conference the Court will set the deadlines for filing 8 and disposing of the following matters: proposed voir dire, jury instructions, trial 9 memorandum, deposition testimony to be used at trial, and motions in limine.

10 7. A jury demand has been made.

11 8. Court imposed discovery deadlines cannot be extended by a party without Court 12 approval. Continuances will not be freely granted. Any requests for extensions must be 13 made in writing and made prior to the expiration of the time prescribed. The request must 14 identify whether it is opposed, the number of prior continuances requested, the discovery 15 conducted to date, the anticipated discovery to be done if the request is granted, and the 16 reasons why discovery has not been completed within the deadline.

17 9. Plaintiff must file and serve a notice of a change of address 10 days before the 18 move is effective, if practicable. Plaintiff must not include a motion for other relief with 19 a notice of change of address. Failure to comply may result in dismissal. Plaintiff is 20 warned that failure to timely comply with every provision of this Order, including these 21 warnings, may result in dismissal of this action without further notice. See Ferdik v.
22 Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1260-61 (9th Cir. 1992) (a district court may dismiss an action 23 for failure to comply with any order of the Court).
