IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Sara Preston,
Plaintiff,
v.
Commissioner of Social Security Administration,
Defendant.

No. CV-24-00583-TUC-LCK
ORDER

On December 5, 2024, Magistrate Judge Lynette C. Kimmins issued a Report and Recommendation (“R&R”), recommending that the District Court enter an order denying Plaintiff Sara Preston’s Application for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (“IFP Application”) (Doc. 2) and directing her to pay the filing fee or her Complaint would be subject to dismissal. (Doc. 6.) Judge Kimmins notified the parties they had fourteen days to object to the R&R. (Id.) No objections have been filed.

The standard of review of a magistrate judge’s R&R is dependent upon whether a party objects: where there is no objection to a magistrate’s factual or legal determinations, the district court need not review the decision “under a de novo or any other standard.” Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985).

The Court has reviewed the IFP Application and the R&R and agrees with the Magistrate Judge’s conclusions.

Dated this 6th day of January, 2025.

Honorable Raner C. Collins
