DEFENDANTS

ORDER

1. One of my former law clerks, Barrett Moore, has appeared as counsel in this case and helpfully inquired about whether I'll be recusing. I'm attaching Barrett's letter.
2. Former clerks are on my recusal list for two years after leaving chambers. That's our Court's general practice. General Order No. 32.

Barrett's clerkship ended in 2011. A former clerk should be on my list after the two-year period if our contacts are so regular, and our relationship so close, that my impartiality might reasonably be questioned in a proceeding where the former clerk is lawyering. By that standard, Barrett should be on my recusal list. I'm therefore restoring him today. And I recuse in this case. The Clerk must reassign it at random by chip exchange.

So Ordered.
