INITIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

Defendant has filed his Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint. The Court will give the parties six months to complete discovery and seven months (30 days after the close of discovery) to file any dispositive motions.¹

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties shall complete discovery on or before April 3, 2012, and file any dispositive motions on or before May 3, 2012.

Dated this 4th day of October, 2011.

JEROME T. KEARNEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ This means that the parties must send their final discovery requests to the opposing side so that they have the full amount of time, as provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to respond before the discovery deadline expires. For instance, Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(b)(2) states that a party has 30 days to respond to interrogatories. Thus, the parties must send their final interrogatories to the opposing side at least 30 days before the expiration of the discovery deadline
