DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Here are the Court's rulings on Defendants' motion in limine, No. 175.

- A. Granted as modified. We're not going to try the internal affairs investigation. Any party's inconsistent statement during the investigation is admissible.
- B. Granted as modified. Other incidents are out, except that Scott may offer evidence of the Washington/Brooks encounter as an alleged cause of the Washington/Scott encounter. If Scott can't show any causal relationship, the Court will strike and disregard this evidence.
- C. Granted as agreed on other lawsuits.

- D. Granted on related disciplinary actions.
- E. Granted as agreed on other disciplinary actions.
- F. Granted as agreed on any "missing" videos.
- G. Granted on force policies. They're marginally relevant on the constitutional issues; but they would open the door to the internal investigation, which would confuse the issues.
- H. Denied on witnesses now identified or as needed to implement the Court's rulings.
- I. Granted as modified. Scott's grievances related to this suit come in; all others are out.

Motion, No 175, granted in part and denied in part.

So Ordered.
