ORDER

Opposed recommendation, No. 8, adopted as modified and supplemented. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b)(3). Winston says that defendants lost or destroyed his personal property. Most of the claims are probably untimely. In any event, he has not pleaded § 1983 claims; he has, instead, pleaded state-law claims for conversion. Winston's potential remedy, if any at this date, is at the Claims Commission. Hudson v. Palmer, 468 U.S. 517, 533 (1984); Willis Smith and Co., Inc. v. Arkansas, 548 F.3d 638, 640 (8th Cir. 2008).

So Ordered.
