AGREED ORDER

On this day, this matter came on for hearing with the parties appearing by their attorneys of record announcing that they had agreed to the entry of this Order to resolve any issues regarding process or service of process and for the purpose of dismissing certain Defendants from this lawsuit without prejudice. Having considered this matter, the Court agrees that the entry of this Order is appropriate and, therefore, finds and orders the following:

1. Pursuant to the stipulations of the parties, the Court hereby finds and orders that the Defendants, Steven D. Easterday and T and T Farms, Inc., the employer of Steven D. Easterday, were properly served with the Summons and Complaint in this case within the time and in the manner required by law and those Defendants withdraw any objection or assertion that either process or service of process were defective in this case.

2. Pursuant to the stipulations of the parties, the Court finds that this Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter in this case.

3. Pursuant to the stipulations of the parties, the Court finds that since the parties are in agreement that the proper Defendants in this case are Steven D. Easterday and his employer, T and T Farms, Inc., this case will proceed with the Defendants, Steven D. Easterday and T and T Farms,

Inc., as the only Defendants and the remaining Defendants named in Plaintiff's Complaint should be and are hereby dismissed from this case without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

James M. Moody
United States District Judge
