DEFENDANTS

INITIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

Defendants have filed their Answers to Plaintiffs' Complaint. The Court will give the parties six months to complete discovery and seven months (30 days after the close of discovery) to file any dispositive motions.<sup>1</sup>

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties shall complete discovery on or before February 24, 2012, and file any dispositive motions on or before March 24, 2012.

Dated this 24th day of August, 2011.

<sup>1</sup> This means that the parties must send their final discovery requests to the opposing side so that they have the full amount of time, as provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to respond before the discovery deadline expires. For instance, Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(b)(2) states that a party has 30 days to respond to interrogatories. Thus, the parties must send their final interrogatories to the opposing side at least 30 days before the expiration of the discovery deadline
