

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
JONESBORO DIVISION

MELVIN JOHNSON, JR.

ADC #112882

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 3:14-cv-300-DPM-JJV

LUTHER WHITFIELD, Lieutenant, Mississippi
County Detention Center; OCTAVIOUS BAILEY,
Jailer, Mississippi County Detention Center; DALE
COOK, Sheriff, Mississippi County Detention Center;
and JANE DOE, Nurse "Kristy," Mississippi County
Detention Center

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

1. On de novo review, the Court partly adopts and partly declines the recommendation, No 4. Johnson's post-recommendation filings make things clearer.
2. As recommended, Cook is dismissed as a defendant without prejudice. Hughes v. Stottlemyre, 454 F.3d 791, 798 (8th Cir. 2006).
3. Johnson has now stated a plausible failure-to-protect claim against Bailey and Whitfield. The case can proceed against them. The Court grants Johnson's motion for leave to amend, No 11, and directs the Clerk to make No 11 the amended complaint. Magistrate Judge Volpe will handle the service issues.

4. Johnson's motion to add defendants, No 6, is denied. The Mississippi County Detention Center is not an entity that can be sued. And Johnson hasn't stated sufficient facts about any of the proposed defendants to make a claim.

5. The Court grants Johnson's request to voluntarily dismiss his claim without prejudice against Defendant Doe.

6. Johnson's motion for production, No 5, is denied without prejudice. Any needed discovery will be overseen by Judge Volpe after the defendants have been served and responded.

Recommendation, No 4, partly adopted and partly declined. Cook and Doe are no longer defendants. Motions, No 5 & 6, denied. The case will proceed on No 11 as the amended complaint. Case returned to Judge Volpe for further proceedings.

So Ordered.
