DAVIS, Officer, Crittendon County, et al.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

The summons issued for Defendant “Davis” at the Crittendon County Jail has been returned to the Court unexecuted by the United States Marshal Service. Doc. 9.

It is the responsibility of a prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis in a § 1983 action to provide the Court and the U.S. Marshal Service with proper service addresses for the defendants. Lee v. Armontrout, 991 F.2d 487, 489 (8th Cir. 1993). The Court will allow Plaintiff forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order to ascertain a valid service address for Davis. Plaintiff is advised that the failure to timely and properly comply with this Order may result in dismissal, without prejudice, of the claims against Davis. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) (providing that a Court may sua sponte dismiss a defendant if he or she is not served within 120 days of the filing of the complaint).

IT IS SO ORDERED this 3rd day of June, 2015.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "J. Thomas Ray". The signature is written in a cursive style with a prominent initial "J" and a long, sweeping underline.
