

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
JONESBORO DIVISION

TRI-STATE ARMATURE
& ELECTRICAL WORKS, INC.

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 3:16-cv-134-DPM

TIMOTHY B. HOUSTON; ELECTRO DESIGN
ENGINEERING, INC.; and CELETA STRIPLING

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Defense counsel sent the attached emails to chambers today. If Tri-State hasn't served the disputed subpoenas yet, then it should not do so until the Court resolves the parties' dispute. Simultaneous five-page briefs with attachments due by 5:00 p.m. tomorrow, 1 March 2017. The Court encourages counsel to do two things: cooperate more; and follow the Court's Scheduling Order, No 15 at 3, about how to bring discovery disputes to the Court.

So Ordered.

D.P. Marshall Jr.
United States District Judge

Timothy B. Houston, Electro Design
Engineering, Inc., and Celeta Stripling; U.S.
District Court, Eastern District of Arkansas,
Jonesboro Division; No. 3:16-cv-134-DPM*

Dear Judge Marshall:

We have a discovery issue as a result of broad subpoenas issued yesterday by Plaintiff's counsel to 25 of our client's customers. When we received the subpoenas yesterday, we asked counsel to withhold service of the subpoenas so we could address with them our objections to the requests; however, counsel is proceeding forward and serving customers as we speak. We are unable to resolve this issue. Our request is simply that counsel withhold service of the subpoenas to the non-party customers so we can file an appropriate motion, assert our objections and let the Court rule. Will the Court please grant our request for counsel to place on hold service of the subpoenas? Plaintiff's counsel, Jim Simpson, advised that he is out of the office this afternoon and others in his firm are attending a funeral today.

Thank you very much for the Court's time.

Sincerely,

WOMACK PHELPS
