

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
JONESBORO DIVISION

CARLO W. OBREGON

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 3:17-cv-156-DPM

CAPITAL QUARRIES COMPANY,
INC., owned or held by Farmer Holding Company, Inc.; and FARMER HOLDING COMPANY, INC.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Farmer Holding Company's motion, No 6, is granted with a caveat. On the current record, there's no personal jurisdiction, general or specific. Epps v. Stewart Information Services Corporation, 327 F.3d 642, 646-47 (8th Cir. 2003). Obregon's claims against Farmer Holding Company, Inc. are therefore dismissed without prejudice.

Obregon, though, may explore Capital Quarries Company, Inc.'s relationships in discovery. And if a related entity was involved in the alleged discrimination, then Obregon should file a timely motion to amend with a proposed amended complaint (changes in redline). The amended complaint must give particulars on any involvement and on why this Court has personal jurisdiction. The deadline for a motion to amend will be in the Court's final scheduling order.

So Ordered.
