DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Rodgers's motion as supplemented, No 41 & 45, is partly granted and partly denied. The Court extends Rodgers's time to serve her complaint on elusive defendants until 28 March 2018 as requested. Rodgers also asks that the Court not dismiss any of the defendants. The Court can't make that decision yet. That part of the motion is denied. Rodgers has fourteen calendar days to respond after being served with any motion to dismiss. LOCAL RULE 7.2(b); No 3 at 1-2. Three such motions have been filed in recent days. No 31, 34, & 44. Rodgers should respond on the merits to each in a timely fashion. And the Court will then decide each motion after hearing from both sides in their filings.

So Ordered.
