ORDER REVIVING JUDGMENT

On this day the Motion to Revive Judgment Lien filed by General Electric Capital Corporation, successor to Associates Commercial Corporation, comes for hearing. From the Motion, the Notice of Intent to Revive Judgment issued herein, and from other things and matters before the Court, the Court, having considered the matter and being well and sufficiently advised, finds that the judgment entered against Beech Trucking Company, Inc. and Arthur Beech in the amount of $295,540.37 on October 19, 2000 in this court has not been reversed, annulled, or set aside, and remains unsatisfied, and that the lien arising from said judgment is hereby revived.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
