DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Max Freeman, an attorney for the Plaintiffs, and Daphne Grier, a paralegal for Plaintiffs' counsel, may bring their laptop computers and cell phones—including smart phones—into the courthouse. The phones may be used as needed outside of any courtroom. When inside courtroom B155, the cell phones must be turned off. Putting the cell phones on "vibrate" or "silent" is unacceptable. No phone or computer may be used to take photographs or video in the courthouse. And when talking on a phone (or with someone in person) in a corridor, all courthouse visitors should be as quiet as possible. Visitors should also be as quiet as possible when working with their laptop computers.

So Ordered.
