UNITED TRANSPORTATION UNION

DEFENDANT

ORDER

On July 24, 2009, Plaintiff filed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis that indicated that within the past twelve months he “received income from rent payments, interest or dividends; pension, annuity, or life insurance payments; and disability or worker’s compensation payments.”¹ Since Plaintiff did not describe the amount of money he received from each source or expected to receive in the future, he was directed Plaintiff “re-file his complete Motion by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 13, 2009.”² On August 18, 2009, Plaintiff requested an extension fo time to pay the filing fee. The motion was granted and Plaintiff was directed “to pay the $350.00 filing fee by September 13, 2009, or his case will be dismissed without prejudice.”³

To date, Plaintiff has not paid the filing fee. Accordingly, this case is DISMISSED for failure to prosecute.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 4th day of December, 2009.
