AGREED ORDER FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Pending is the Plaintiff’s Motion for a Preliminary Injunction (Doc. No. 4) and, the Court, recognizing that the Plaintiff’s continued loss of customers and corresponding loss of business goodwill, references to potential customers, and future business is irreparable in nature, hereby grants the Motion for Preliminary Injunction enjoining the Defendants, until further order from this Court, from:

- (a) disclosing Plaintiff’s proprietary information to third parties; and
- (b) interfering with Plaintiff’s contractual relations and business expectancies including, but not limited to: (i) soliciting any customer whom Plaintiff holds an existing contractual relationship with; (ii) contracting with any customer whom Plaintiff holds an existing contractual relationship with, either directly or indirectly; and (iii) providing IT services to any customer whom Plaintiff holds an existing contractual relationship with.

The Defendants may continue to provide IT services to SeyTec, InterPro Group, and Capstone Underwriters, LLC, but the continuation of IT services from the Defendants to SeyTec, InterPro Group, and Capstone Underwriters shall in no way be construed as a waiver of Plaintiff's claims and damages related to such services. Moreover, this Agreed Order shall in no way be construed as a waiver of Plaintiff's claims and damages related to the Defendants actions towards and related to any other former customer of Plaintiff.

It is the intent of this Preliminary Injunction to maintain the status quo of the Parties pending further discovery and order by this Court. By agreement of the Parties, the Plaintiff is not required to post security in conjunction with the entry of this Preliminary Injunction.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 10 day of May, 2010.
