RE: Jackson National Life Insurance Company v Tracy Lee Winters, et al
US District Court, Eastern District of Ark, Western Division #4:10CV01076 BSM

My File: Merchants and Planters Bank # 2009-312

Dear Judge Miller:

I have received Initial Scheduling Order from the Court Clerk in the above case.

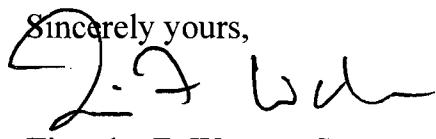

The Court may recall that I represent the Merchants & Planters Bank. We have filed a pleading disclaiming any interest in the subject matter of this case. I am enclosing copy of that pleading for your ready reference. Therefore, I assume it is not necessary for me to comply with the scheduling order or to make any appearance.

I would appreciate it, if the other parties have no objection, if the Court would enter an order dismissing the cause of action against my client. Please advise. If so, I will prepare such an order and circulate it.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Timothy F. Watson, Sr.

SEPARATE ANSWER OF JIM S. GOWEN, SR., CHAIRMAN, MERCHANTS AND PLANTERS BANK OF NEWPORT

COMES the Separate Defendant, Jim S. Gowen, Sr., Chairman, Merchants and Planters Bank of Newport, by his attorney, Timothy F. Watson, Sr., and hereby states:

1. That neither the said Jim S. Gowen, Sr., in his capacity as Chairman of the Merchants and Planters Bank, or the Merchants and Planters Bank Newport, Arkansas, claims any interest whatsoever in the subject matter of this cause, and hereby agree that a judgment may be entered to the effect that these defendants have no interest or claim upon the fund sought to be interpleaded.

2. That said defendants have no other interest in this matter, and agree that judgment may be entered finding that they have no claim or interest in said fund.

WHEREFORE, having answered said Complaint for Interpleader, Jim S. Gowen, Sr.

, in his capacity as Chairman of the Merchants and Planters Bank of Newport, and the Merchants and Planters Bank Newport, Arkansas, pray an order of this Court finding that these defendants have and claim no interest whatsoever in the funds sought to be interpleaded herein, and dismissing same as to them; and for any other relief to which they may be entitled.
