PLAINTIFFS

v.

No. 4:10CV01528 JLH

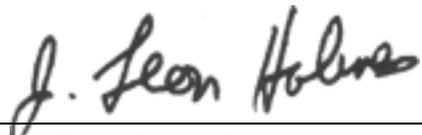

DAVID H. ARRINGTON OIL & GAS, INC.

DEFENDANT

ORDER

This matter is scheduled for a bench trial to begin on February 22, 2011. The case was previously scheduled for trial on November 1, 2010. Before the trial date in November 2010, both sides filed motions in limine to exclude certain categories of evidence. The Court has reviewed the motions in limine filed by both parties and preliminarily believes that the evidence described in the motions in limine is admissible. Therefore, both motions in limine will be denied. Documents #56 and #58. This ruling is made without prejudice to the right of the parties to object to evidence at trial. In the event that it appears that evidence that is the subject of the motions in limine is inadmissible, the Court will make that determination after hearing all of the evidence and will exclude inadmissible evidence from consideration in making a final decision on the merits.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 27th day of January, 2011.

J. LEON HOLMES
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
