ORDER

On 13 October 2011, the Court granted Rackley's motion to proceed in forma pauperis in this action. The Court also found, however, that Rackley's complaint was too vague and conclusory to enable it to determine whether it was frivolous, and that it likely failed to state a claim. The Court directed Rackley to file an amended complaint within thirty days. The Court also advised Rackley that failing to do so could result in his complaint being dismissed without prejudice. As of this date, Rackley has not responded in any way. Rackley's complaint is therefore dismissed without prejudice. Local Rule 5.5(c)(2).

So Ordered.
