DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Doddridge's motion for voluntary dismissal, No 16, is granted. FED. R. CIV. P. 41(a)(2). Her claims are dismissed without prejudice on this condition: if Doddridge refiles the case with any federal claims, she must do so in federal court—the forum the defendants prefer and are entitled to on those claims. This avoids the defendants having to incur fees and costs associated with removal twice.

So Ordered.
