DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Best's motion to stay response time, No 23, is granted. Best has done enough, early in the case, to show that, by taking Dr. Johnson's and the nurses' depositions, she may uncover facts essential to maintaining her claims against the doctor. FED. R. CIV. P. 56(d); Chambers v. Travelers Companies, Inc., 668 F.3d 559, 568 (8th Cir. 2012). Best's deadline for responding to Dr. Johnson's motion for summary judgment, No 20, is stayed until 16 December 2013. Between now and then, she must do focused discovery about Dr. Johnson's role, if any, in Best's care and treatment.

So Ordered.
