ORDER

The Court appreciates the parties' suggestions about jury instructions. The Court is attaching its current working drafts of (1) the preliminary instructions and (2) the final instructions, including the embedded verdict form.

Please file any objections to the preliminary instructions by the close of business on January 7th. There's no need to comment or object yet on the final instructions or the verdict form. We'll work on those drafts throughout the trial.

Some notes. If any summaries are admitted, the Court will add a final instruction. The Court will instruct about depositions when it comes up during trial. The disputed part of AMI 901(B) is in the working draft; the proof will determine whether it stays.

So Ordered.
