DEFENDANTS

ORDER

1. Bilal has started paying the filing fee and has provided the Court with a proper person and address for serving Progressive. The Court therefore directs the Clerk to issue summons to Progressive. The Court directs the U.S. Marshal to serve the complaint and summons by certified mail, restricted delivery, with a return receipt requested, without prepayment of fees, to Progressive's President:

Glenn M. Renwick
CEO & President
The Progressive Corporation
6300 Wilson Mills Rd.
Mayfield Village, OH 44143

2. Bilal hasn't provided a name and address of any person designated by Ark. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(5) to receive notice of a lawsuit against Ameriprise. All claims against Ameriprise are therefore dismissed without prejudice.

3. Bilal has listed the names and addresses of other people who may have been involved in this dispute or have knowledge about it. No 6. But Bilal named only Progressive and Ameriprise as defendants in his complaint. And Progressive is the only remaining defendant.

So Ordered.
