DEFENDANTS

JUDGMENT

1. Keith Moore's excessive-force and failure-to-protect claims were tried to a twelve-person jury from 18 to 21 August 2014. After deliberations, on August 21st, the jury returned eight unanimous verdicts.

2. The jury found for Richard Lee and Charles Poole on both of Moore's claims against each of them. The jury found for Moore against James Hill on the excessive-force claim, and for Moore against Lantz Goforth on Moore's failure-to-protect claim. The jury found for Hill on Moore's failure-to-protect claim and for Goforth on Moore's excessive-force claim. The jury awarded $500 in compensatory damages, and $1,000.00 in punitive damages, to Moore against Hill for the excessive force. The jury awarded $250.00 in compensatory damages, and $500.00 in punitive damages, to Moore against Goforth for the failure to protect. No party requested a poll of the jury. The verdicts, which consist of the jury's answers to eight sets of questions, are attached and incorporated.

3. The Court enters judgment for Moore against Hill for $1,500.00, for Moore against Goforth for $750.00, for post-judgment interest as provided by law, and for costs and reasonable attorney's fees as the Court may later allow on timely motion. Post-judgment interest will accrue at 0.10% per annum from today until this Judgment is paid. 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a)-(b).
