EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
PINE BLUFF DIVISION

TOMMIE ROGERS

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 5:13-cv-303-DPM

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, Commissioner

DEFENDANT

JUDGMENT

The Commissioner's decision is reversed and the case is remanded with instructions. The ALJ shall develop the record by obtaining additional IQ testing (including a malingering detection instrument) and evidence of onset before age 22 (including primary and secondary school records, if available). If the ALJ finds the IQ scores unreliable, then the ALJ shall explain in detail why the scores are inconsistent with the record. The ALJ shall then consider the evidence as a whole and determine Rogers's ability to work. This is a "sentence four" remand within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).
