8 MR. MCWILLIAMS: This is a housekeeping
9 matter so I avoid interrupting you during your
10 examination. I notice that some privileged documents
11 which have been produced may be used in this 12 deposition and just for the purpose of the record and 13 on behalf of Rick Frenkel, we are not waiving any of 14 the privileges that may be attached to those 15 documents. And would you agree that I don't have to 16 restate that each time a document is used.

17 MR. HOLMES: Yes.

18 MR. MCWILLIAMS: Thank you.

19 MR. GRIFFIN: And that's also true for Cisco,
20 they want to preserve the privilege that has -- for 21 these documents that has previously been stated on the 22 record and I think presented to the court and the 23 court has overruled for the time being those
24 objections but we want to renew them and have a
25 continuing objection.

2 MS. PARKER: After.

3 THE WITNESS: After.

4 MR. GRIFFIN: After? Okay. There was a
5 conversation later that he had that had nothing to do
6 with this lawsuit and nothing to do with work product
7 or attorney-client privilege if you want to ask about 8 that.

9 MR. HOLMES: Okay.

10 MR. GRIFFIN: We will withdraw our objection.
11 There was -- it turns out there's two conversations he 12 had with Mr. Chandler, the general counsel.

13 MR. HOLMES: All right.

14 BY MR. HOLMES:

15 Q Tell me about the second of those two
16 conversations, Mr. Frenkel?

17 A Right. So that was at some point I had 18 decided that I wanted to leave Cisco and I wanted to 19 tell Mr. Chandler myself and get his advice because he 20 was someone I respected and so I wanted to get some 21 career advice from him so I spoke to him about that.

22 Q Okay. And did not discuss anything with him
23 about this blogging incident?

24 A No.

25 Q In your trial testimony that I showed you
