Dear Crystal,

After giving serious thought to my ability to provide expert testimony in the case we have been discussing I have concluded that the press of business is just too great to allow me to do it. Agreeing to do so was done without much time to consider the demands of my other numerous responsibilities. Unfortunately it is my final decision. I apologize if my circumstances and my decision tonight will cause you any undue hardship. It just cannot be helped. If you would like I would be happy to recommend someone else who might have a little more time on their hands.
