Crystal,

I have been trying to get in touch with or Chip unsuccessfully for the past week. I have left messages with your office to contact me. I have been unable to reach you when I returned your calls. I am happy to discuss my decision with you if we can ever connect however I will not be offering my expert testimony and that is my final decision. I made the decision after realizing that I would not have the time to devote to such an effort, I am not inclined to subject myself to the necessary depositions and for a number of other reasons it would not be in my best interest. Again I would be happy to discuss it with you but discussing it will not change my mind. I would be happy to recommend another retired clerk who might be willing to help you out.
