AGREED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Before the Court is the parties' Agreed Motion for Protective Order. (ECF No. 16). Upon consideration, the Court finds that the motion should be and hereby is GRANTED.

The Plaintiff, Fabian Toledano, through written discovery, has sought from Defendants, a copy of all documents in Defendants' policy manual related to the investigation of loss of property claims, including the portions of the manual related to contracting with fire investigators to investigate losses caused by fire, determination of causation and liability related to property losses caused by fire.

Defendants have agreed to produce documents responsive to this request, which are not privileged or protected material. While Defendants maintain it does not have a "policy manual" as requested by Plaintiff, Defendants do have certain documents it believes may be responsive to Plaintiff's request. However, because of its proprietary and confidential nature, Defendants have requested that the documents be produced under this Protective Order, under the terms and conditions stated herein:

1. That Defendants shall produce a copy of document(s) it believes is responsive to Plaintiff's request. Plaintiff may use the document(s) only for the prosecution of this lawsuit.
2. That the document(s) shall be designated "confidential" by stamping copies of the cover of the document(s) produced with the legend "Confidential – Subject to Protective Order."
3. That the information provided subject to this Protective Order may be disclosed or made available solely to:
  - (a) The Court;
  - (b) Counsel for Plaintiff and the Plaintiff;
  - (c) Any other person approved in writing by the Defendants; and/or
  - (d) Those individuals as otherwise ordered by the Court.
4. If the Court orders other individuals to review the document(s) subject to this Protection Order, each person shall be provided with a copy of this Protective Order. Thereafter, the individuals shall acknowledge in writing that he/she agrees to be bound by the terms of this Order, and they shall, further, acknowledge that any breach of confidentiality shall cause the Defendants irreparable harm.
5. That the Court, specifically, orders if the document(s) provided pursuant to this Order be used on the record or filed with the Clerk of this Court, it shall be filed Under Seal.
6. That this Protective Order shall not be deemed to prejudice any of the parties hereto, in any way, nor shall it prejudice any application for modification of this Order or to later seek protection of any other additional document(s).

7. That this Protective Order is agreed to and entered into by the parties solely for the purpose of affording unnecessary and unwarranted delay in expenses. Nothing in this Order or the production of the document(s) under this Order, under the terms and conditions contained herein, or in any subsequent proceeding held herein pursuant to this Order, shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver with respect to the confidentiality of the document(s) or the alerting of any other obligation of the parties hereto.
8. That this Order shall survive the final disposition or dismissal of this action. Upon the dismissal or termination of this action, counsel for the Plaintiff shall ensure and warrant that all copies of the documents provided pursuant to this Order have been collected from all individuals and counsel shall then return said copies to counsel for the Defendants.
9. That counsel for Plaintiff and Defendants agree that they will timely notify the other of any attempts to modify this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 13th day of December, 2013.
