STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION
FOR CREDIT FOR FINES IN EXCHANGE FOR JAIL

Comes now James A. Roe, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, and in response to defendant's motion states:

1. On May 12, 2004, the defendant pled guilty to Violation of Arkansas Hot Check Law, a C Felony, and received a five (5) year suspended imposition of sentence to commence upon release from the department of correction on a Benton County Division One, revocation. The defendant was also ordered to pay $150 in court costs, a $350 public defender fee, a $250 DNA fee and $2,696.87 in victim restitution. (PLEAD GUILTY TO OWN'S SPOUR'S BIRTH/KNOWLEDGE - NOT WITING THEFT) NOT "P" "CASH WHOLESALE MERCHANDISE" NOT "P")
PD 4/9/04
2. On <sup>JULY 15</sup> ~~August 30~~, 2004, the defendant filed her motion to get credit for fines and costs owed in exchange for jail credit.
3. This relief would call for the altering of the defendant's sentence.
4. The only available remedies for altering a sentence appear under A.C.A. § 16-90-111 if the sentence is plainly illegal on its face, or the proper avenue for post-conviction relief of sentence is through Rule 37 of the Arkansas Rules of Criminal Procedure.
5. The Defendant's sentence of five (5) years suspended imposition of sentence and finer, costs and victim restitution of $2,696.87 for a Class C Felony is clearly a valid sentence and thus relief pursuant to A.C.A. § 16-90-111 is unavailable;

6. The defendant's petition was filed one hundred and ten (110) days after her plea of guilty.
7. Rule 37 requires petitions for relief to be filed within ninety (90) days of a plea of guilty, thus the Petition is untimely;
8. The trial court is without jurisdiction to consider the merits of untimely petitions for relief under Rule 37, Doyle v. State, 890 S.W.2d 256 (1994).

WHEREFORE, the State of Arkansas respectfully prays the Court deny the defendant's motion for credit for time served.
