ANSWER: Defendants deny that Plaintiff' complaint should be certified as a class action. Defendants deny all remaining allegations contained in paragraph 19.

class action. Defendants deny all remaining allegations contained in paragraph 20.

ANSWER: Defendants deny that Plaintiff' complaint should be certified as a class action. Defendants deny all remaining allegations contained in paragraph 21.

22. There is no plain, speedy or adequate remedy other than by maintenance of this class action because Plaintiffs SIMS are informed and believe that the economic damage to each member of the class makes it economically unfeasible to pursue remedies other than through a class action. ANSWER: Defendants deny that Plaintiff' complaint should be certified as a class action. Defendants deny all remaining allegations contained in paragraph 22.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23. Plaintiffs dog, ABBY, died as a direct result of the ingestion of canned and/or foil pouched dog food manufactured and distributed in the United States by Defendants.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 23.

24. Defendants distributed their "Cuts and Gravy" canned and foil pouched dog and cat food product by misleading users about the product and by failing to adequately warn the users of the potential serious dangers, which Defendants knew or should have known, might result from animals consuming its product. Defendants widely and successfully marketed Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products throughout the United States by, among other things, conducting promotional campaigns that misrepresented the safety of Defendants' products in order to induce widespread use and consumption.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 24.

25. As a result of claims made by Defendants regarding the safety and effectiveness of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products, Plaintiff SIMS fed their dog, ABBY, canned dog food distributed under the format "Cuts and Gravy", said product being manufactured and distributed by Defendants.

29. Had Plaintiff SIMS known the risks and dangers associated with Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog food product sold under the format "Cuts and Gravy", or had Defendants disclosed such information to Plaintiff, he would not have fed Defendants' product to their dog, ABBY, and the dog would not have suffered subsequent health complications and ultimately died before the age of two.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 29.

30. Upon information and belief, as a result of the manufacturing and marketing of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products, Defendants have reaped huge profits; while concealing from the public, knowledge of the potential hazard associated with the ingestion of Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 30.

31. Defendants failed to perform adequate testing in that the adequate testing would have shown that Defendants' canned and foil pouched dog and cat food products produced serious side effects with respect to which Defendants should have taken appropriate measures to ensure that its defectively designed product would not be placed into the stream of commerce and/or should have provided full and proper warnings accurately and fully reflecting the scope and severity of symptoms of those side effects should have been made.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 31.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 33.

34. Defendants and their officers, agents, partners and managers intentionally proceeded with the manufacturing, distribution, sale and marketing of Defendants' Product, knowing that the dogs and cats ingesting the Defendants' Product would be exposed to serious potential danger. in order to advance their own pecuniary interests.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 34.

35. Defendants' conduct was wanton and willful, and displayed a conscious disregard for the safety of the Product and particularly of the damage it would cause pet owners like the SIMS, entitling these Plaintiffs to exemplary damages.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 35.

36. Defendants acted with conscious and wanton disregard of the health and safety of Plaintiffs dog, ABBY. and Plaintiff requests an award of additional damages for the sake of example and for the purpose of punishing such entities for their conduct, in an amount sufficiently large to be an example to others, and to deter Defendants and others from engaging in similar conduct in the future. The above-described wrongful conduct was done with knowledge, authorization, and ratification of officers, directors, partners and managing agents of Defendants.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 91.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION SOUNDING IN NEGLIGENCE

92. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by reference each and every paragraph of this complaint as though set forth in full in this cause of action.

ANSWER: Defendants re-plead and incorporate by reference their answers to paragraphs 1-91 of Plaintiff's class action complaint as and for their answer to paragraph 92, as if fully set forth herein.

93. Defendants owed a duty to consumers of Defendants' Product, including the Plaintiff, to use reasonable care in designing, testing, labeling, manufacturing, marketing, supplying, distribution and selling Defendants' Product, including a duty to ensure that Defendants' Product did not cause the dogs and cats ingesting the Product to suffer from unreasonable, unknown, and/or dangerous side effects.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 93.

94. Defendants failed to exercise reasonable care in warning about, designing, testing, labeling, manufacture, marketing, selling and/or distributing of Defendants' Product and breached their duties to Plaintiff in that, and not by way of limitation, they did not warn of the known risks associated with the ingestion of Defendants' Product and did not exercise an acceptable standard of care, Le., what a reasonably prudent manufacturer or seller would have known and warned about.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 94.

95. Moreover, the product lacked sufficient warnings of the hazards and dangers to users of said Product, and failed to provide safeguards to prevent the injuries sustained by Plaintiff's dog, ABBY. Defendants failed to properly test Defendants' Product prior to its sale, and as a result subjected users to an unreasonable risk of injury when this Product was used as directed and recommended.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 95.

96. Defendants additionally breached their duty and were negligent in their actions, misrepresentations, and omissions toward Plaintiff, in part, in the following ways:

- a. Failed to exercise due care in designing, developing, and manufacturing Defendants' Product so as to avoid the aforementioned risks to individuals using these products;

- b. Failed to include adequate warnings with Defendants' Product that would alert Plaintiff SIMS and other purchasers to its potential risks and serious side effects;
- c. Failed to adequately and properly test Defendants' Product before placing it on the market;
- d. Failed to conduct sufficient testing on Defendants' Product, which if properly performed, would have shown that Defendants' Product had serious side effects, including, but not limited to, death of the dog or cat;
- e. Failed to adequately warn Plaintiff that use of Defendants' Product carried a risk of other serious side effects;
- f. Failed to provide adequate post-marketing warnings or instructions after Defendants knew, or should have known, of the significant risks of ingestion by dogs and cats of Defendants' Product;
- g. Placed an unsafe product into the stream of commerce; and
- h. Was otherwise careless or negligent.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 96, including all sub-paragraphs (a) through (h).

97. Defendants knew, or should have known, that Defendants' Product caused unreasonably dangerous risks and serious side effects of which Plaintiff would not be aware. Defendants nevertheless advertised, marketed, sold and/or distributed Defendants'

Product knowing of its unreasonable risks of injury.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 97.

98. Defendants knew or should have known that consumers' dogs or cats, such as Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, would suffer injury and possible death as a result of Defendants' failure to exercise reasonable care as described above.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 98.

99. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew or should have known of the defective nature of Defendants' Product, as set forth herein, but continued to design, manufacture, market, and sell Defendants' Product so as to maximize sales and profits at the expense of the health and safety of the public, including Plaintiff, in conscious and/or negligent disregard of the foreseeable harm caused by Defendants' Product.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 99.

100. Defendants failed to disclose to the Plaintiff and the general public facts known or available to them, as alleged herein, in order to ensure continued and increased sales of Defendants' Product. This failure to disclose deprived Plaintiff SIMS of the information necessary for them to weigh the true risks of purchasing Defendants' Product against the benefits.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 100.

101. As a direct and proximate result of Plaintiff SIMS' feeding Defendants' Product to their dog, ABBY, Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, suffered serious health problems and ultimate death.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 101.

102. By virtue of Defendants' negligence, Defendants directly, foreseeably and proximately caused Plaintiff SIMS' dog, ABBY, to suffer serious health problems and ultimate death. As a result, the imposition of punitive damages against Defendants is warranted.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 102.

103. The damages resulting from the allegations asserted under this cause of action, exceed the district court's original jurisdictional limits as described in Section 4 of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005.

ANSWER: Defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 103.

104. Defendants reserve the right to amend this answer and affirmative defenses in the event that information learned during discovery or in the progression of this case, provides it with reason to so amend this answer and affirmative defenses.

105. Defendants demand a trial by jury.

WHEREFORE, Defendants respectfully request dismissal of Plaintiffs' claims against them, with costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants Menu Foods Income Fund, Menu Foods Midwest Corporation, Menu Foods South Dakota, Inc., Menu Foods, Inc., Menu Foods Holdings, Inc., by their attorneys, pleading in the alternative and for their affirmative defenses hereby, state as

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted and should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants assert that Plaintiffs cannot establish a prima facie case of entitlement to punitive damages on their fraud claim. Under Arkansas law, punitive damages are only available if the requisite showing is made; that is, if fraud is aggravated in the sense of being malicious, deliberate, and gross or wanton. Gilmer v. Walt Disney Co., 915 F. Supp. 1001 (1996). Under Arkansas law, claims for punitive damages must be closely scrutinized. Id.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants assert that the sole proximate cause of the injuries and damages alleged in the Plaintiff's Complaint was Plaintiffs' own conduct, and therefore, the Plaintiffs are entitled to take nothing by this lawsuit. Defendants assert that those injuries and damages alleged in the Plaintiff's Complaint were a direct and proximate cause of the Plaintiffs' own conduct, and therefore, if any Defendant or Defendants are found liable to the Plaintiffs for the trial of this cause, said monetary award should be reduced in an amount commensurate with Plaintiff's comparative fault.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants assert that Plaintiffs' conduct constitutes contributory. Defendants deny liability but assert their fault, if any, for the injuries and damages alleged, but if Defendants' fault is found to be less than the total attributable fault of the Plaintiffs, and to any Third-Party Defendant, who could have been sued by the Plaintiffs, Defendants shall only be severally liable for the Plaintiff's damages, if any, which may be awarded by a trier of fact.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants assert that Plaintiffs complaint should not be certified as a class action. Products liability actions are distinguishable from other mass personal injury cases since "No single happening or accident occurs to cause similar types of physical harm or property damage. No one set of operative facts establishes liability." In re Northern District of California Dalkon Shield IUD Products Liability Litigation, 693 F.2d 847 (C.A.9th, 1982).

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants' products were not defective or unreasonably dangerous based on an alleged failure to warn, because at that the time of Plaintiffs alleged exposure there was no information available on the basis of which a reasonable manufacturer of pet food could have concluded that exposure to any internally containing material might be dangerous. As a matter of law, a manufacturer or distributor of a product is under no duty to warn of a prospective risk of harm in the absence of knowledge, actual, or constructive, of the risk arising from a foreseeable use of its own products.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants deny that Plaintiffs sustained any injuries as a result of contact with or use of any product manufactured or sold by these Defendants and further states that any contact with Defendants' alleged products would be so slight that it would not be a substantial factor in causing or contributing to the cause of the injuries of which Plaintiffs now complain.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

If Plaintiffs are found to have sustained injuries from products manufactured or distributed by Defendants products, then said exposure was de minimis and not the legal and proximate cause of Plaintiffs' injuries.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

If Plaintiffs sustained injuries and damages alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint, which Defendants deny, such injuries resulted in whole or in part from the acts of one or more persons over whom Defendants have no control or right of control and Defendants are therefore entitled to a reduction of damages for comparative fault of others.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's damages, if any, were proximately caused by unforeseeable, independent, intervening or superseding events beyond the control and unrelated to the conduct of Defendants. Defendants' actions and omissions, if any, were superseded by such unforeseeable, independent events.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to allege sufficient facts to entitle Plaintiffs to an award of exemplary or punitive damages.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

With respect to each and every purported cause of action, Defendants' acts were at all times done in good faith and without malice.

WHEREFORE, Defendants respectfully request dismissal of Plaintiffs' claims against them, with costs and any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/Christy Comstock
