DEFENDANTS

JUDGMENT

On the 27th day of July, 2010, the captioned case came on for trial. Twelve jurors were empaneled and heard the testimony of the witnesses and received documentary evidence.

Midway of trial, plaintiffs moved to dismiss their claims against separate defendants Bruce Millender and Heritage Coast Properties, L.L.C., with prejudice, which motion was granted ore tenus.

At the conclusion of the evidence, having been instructed by the Court and having heard the arguments of counsel, the jury retired to deliberate, and returned a verdict on August 6, 2010, in favor of separate defendants Chambers Bank of North Arkansas and John Russell Meeks.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiffs' claims against separate defendants Bruce Millender and Heritage Coast Properties, L.L.C., are dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiffs recover nothing on their claims against separate defendants Chambers Bank of North Arkansas and John Russell Meeks, and those claims are dismissed with prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 11th day of August, 2010.
