- 3. On or about November 5th and 6th, 2010, Larry Esacove proceeded to liquidate his personal property (upon which I hold a lien) by hiring Hughes Estate Sales, Inc. ['Hughes'] to sell the contents of his second home at 1240 Ladan Drive in Solvang, California. [Exhibit 1]
  - 4. On November 12, 2010 I served a levy and a subpoena upon Hughes.
- 5. The information received pursuant to subpoena shows that Hughes is holding $55,884.55 in funds from the sale, and is also holding unsold inventory.
- 6. Despite numerous requests, Hughes has refused and continues to refuse to answer the Marshal's levy and turn over funds to the US Marshal.
- 7. I wish to examine Todd Hughes, managing owner of Hughes in reference to the monies he is holding for the judgment debtors, as the first step toward seeking a turnover order of those funds.
- 8. I believe that Hughes is holding funds in which the Judgment Debtors hold an interest in excess of $250.00 and can thus be examined as a third party as provided by CCP §708.120(a).
- 9. F.R. 69(a)(2) allows a judgment creditor to obtain discovery from any person as provided by the procedure of the state where the court is located. CCP §708.130 provides that witnesses may be required to appear in an examination proceeding.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct and that this Affidavit was executed on December 18, 2010 at San Diego, California.
