UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TICKETMASTER L.L.C., a Virginia limited liability company,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RMG TECHNOLOGIES, INC., a Delaware corporation, and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. CV07-2534 ABC (JWJx)

Hon. Audrey B. Collins

Courtroom: 680

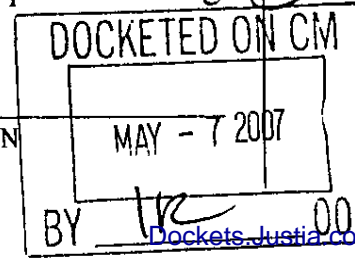

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION REQUIRING PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

Complaint Filed: April 17, 2007

THIS CONSTITUTES NOTICE OF ENTRY AS REQUIRED BY FRCP, RULE 77(d).

The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and declarations of plaintiff Ticketmaster L.L.C. and having received no opposition from defendant RMG Technologies, Inc. to the Court's April 19, 2007 Order to Show Cause, hereby finds as follows:

1. On April 17, 2007, the same day Ticketmaster filed its Complaint in this action, Ticketmaster filed an Ex Parte Application against defendant RMG Technologies, Inc. ("RMG") for an order "requiring RMG and its agents, servants, employees, representatives and attorneys, and all persons acting in

1 concert or participating with RMG, to desist and refrain from tampering with,
2 destroying, or permitting the loss or destruction of documents and other
3 information, including without limitation computer equipment, computer files, and
4 printed documents, that is relevant or that might lead to the discovery of admissible
5 evidence based on the allegations of the Complaint.”

6 2. On April 19, 2007, the Court granted Ticketmaster’s Ex Parte
7 Application and issued a Temporary Restraining Order against RMG. The Court
8 also issued an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not 9 Issue.

10 3. Ticketmaster has established, through the certification of its 11 counsel and proofs of service, that it gave proper notice to RMG of the Order to 12 Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue. RMG did not oppose
13 the Order.

14 4. Ticketmaster has established that Ticketmaster will suffer
15 irreparable harm if documents and other information in RMG’s possession which is 16 relevant to this litigation are tampered with, destroyed or lost, because RMG may 17 be the only source for obtaining such documents and information.

18 5. Ticketmaster has established that the balance of hardships tips
19 sharply in Ticketmaster’s favor, because the relief requested by Ticketmaster will 20 merely preserve the status quo and will not impose any hardship on RMG.

21 6. Ticketmaster has established that unless RMG continues to be 22 restrained in the manner requested, Ticketmaster will have no adequate remedy at 23 law.

24 Therefore, the Court ORDERS as follows:

25 Defendant RMG and its agents, servants, employees, representatives
26 and attorneys, and all persons acting in concert or participating with RMG, is
27 PRELIMINARILY ENJOINED during the pendency of this action from tampering
28 with, destroying, or permitting the loss or destruction of documents and other

1 information, including without limitation computer equipment, computer files, and
2 printed documents, that is relevant or that might lead to the discovery of admissible
3 evidence based on the allegations of the Complaint filed in this action.

4 This Order is made without prejudice to either party's right to seek the 5 Court's assistance in modifying this Order during the pendency of the litigation, as 6 the circumstances may warrant.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

8 Ticketmaster need not post security for this Preliminary Injunction
9 because the requested relief is consistent with the discovery obligations specified by 10 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure following the commencement of an action.
11 Thus, there is no risk that RMG will incur or suffer costs or damages by reason of 12 this Injunction.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Temporary Restraining Order
14 entered by this Court on April 19, 2007, is dissolved.

15
16 IT IS SO ORDERED.

17 Dated: May 3, 2007
