23 indirectly, contributorily, or vicariously infringing in any manner any 24 copyright in any and all motion pictures, television programs, and other 25 copyrighted works (or portions thereof), whether now in existence or later 26 created, in which any Plaintiff (including its parents, subsidiaries, or 27 affiliates) owns or controls an exclusive right under Section 106 of the

28 United States Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. § 106) or pursuant to copyright laws

1 of other countries or territories (the “Copyrighted Works”), including, but 2 not limited to, engaging in any of the following without appropriate written

15 unauthorized copying, reproduction, downloading, distribution, 16 uploading, linking to, transmission, or public performance of 17 any of the Copyrighted works.

18 (d) if necessary, shall cease to operate or assist in the operation of, and 19 will not profit or benefit from, any website known or suspected by

5 5. Absent the prior written consent of Plaintiffs or their designee, 6 Defendant shall not publicly release, distribute, sell, transfer or give away, for 7 consideration or otherwise, any software, source code, object code, technology,

17 7. Defendant irrevocably and fully waives any and all rights to appeal
18 the Consent Judgment, to have it vacated or set aside, to seek or obtain a new trial 19 thereon, or otherwise to attack in any way, directly or collaterally, its validity or 20 enforceability.

21 8. Nothing contained in the Consent Judgment shall limit the right of 22 Plaintiffs to seek relief, including without limitation, damages, for any and all 23 infringements by Defendant of the Copyrighted Works occurring after the date

26 Defendant at the time of its execution by the Court.

27

28

1 10. The Court finds there is no just reason for delay in entering this 2 Consent Judgment and, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(a), the 3 Court directs immediate entry of this Consent Judgment against Defendant.

4 11. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action to entertain such 5 further proceedings and to enter such further orders as may be necessary or
