STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: Hon. Manuel L. Real
 Ctrm.: 8

Hunton & Williams LLP
550 South Hope Street, Suite 2000
Los Angeles, California 90071

1 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Plaintiff
2 Deckers Outdoor Corporation (“Deckers”), Defendant Aldo U.S. Inc., Defendant
3 Groove Footwear LLC, Defendant Tween Brands, Inc., Defendant Steve Madden, 4 Ltd., Defendant Urban Outfitters, Inc., Defendant Alloy Media, LLC, and Defendant
5 Bon-Ton Stores, Inc., as follows:

6
7 I. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE OF STIPULATION

8 1. This Order shall apply to all information produced during discovery in 9 this action that shall be designated by the party or person producing it as 10 “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” (collectively, “Confidential 11 Information”). This Order shall not apply to information that, before disclosure, is 12 properly in the possession or knowledge of the party to whom such disclosure is 13 made, or is public knowledge. The restrictions contained in this Order shall not apply 14 to information that is, or after disclosure becomes, public knowledge other than by an 15 act or omission of the party to whom such disclosure is made, or that is legitimately 16 acquired from a source not subject to this Order.

17 2. If an exhibit, pleading, interrogatory answer or admission (collectively 18 “discovery response”), deposition transcript, other transcript of testimony, declaration 19 or affidavit (collectively “testimony”), or a document or thing contains information 20 considered confidential by a party, such exhibit, pleading, discovery response, 21 testimony, or document or thing shall be designated “Confidential” or “Confidential-22 Attorneys Eyes Only” by the party contending there is confidential information 23 therein.

24 3. In connection with an exhibit, pleading, discovery response, document or 25 thing, testimony or other court submission, the legend “Confidential” or 26 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” (in such a manner as will not interfere with the 27 legibility thereof) shall be affixed before the production or service upon a party.
28

1 4. As a general guideline, a document should be designated “Confidential” 2 when it contains confidential business, technical or other information that may be 3 reviewed by the receiving party, the parties’ experts, and other representatives, but 4 must be protected against disclosure to third parties. As a general guideline, a 5 document should be designated “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” when it contains 6 the following highly sensitive information: financial information; cost information; 7 pricing information; sales information; customer, license, supplier, and vendor 8 information; software and firmware for a party’s products; technical and development 9 information about a party’s products; comparative product test results; business plans; 10 marketing strategies; new product plans and competitive strategies; or any other 11 information that would put the producing party at a competitive disadvantage if the 12 information became known to employees of the receiving party or third parties.

13 5. All Confidential Information (i.e., “Confidential” or “Confidential-14 Attorneys Eyes Only” information) that has been obtained from a party during the 15 course of this proceeding shall be used only for the purpose of this litigation and not 16 for any other business, proceeding, litigation, or other purpose whatsoever. Further, 17 such information may not be disclosed to anyone except as provided in this Order.
18 Counsel for a party may give advice and opinions to their client based on evaluation 19 of information designated as Confidential Information produced by the other party.
20 For information designated “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only,” such rendering of 21 advice and opinions shall not reveal the content of such information except by prior 22 agreement with opposing counsel.

23 6. All documents, or any portion thereof, produced for inspection only (i.e., 24 copies have not yet been provided to the receiving party) shall be deemed 25 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only.” If a copy of any such document is requested 26 after inspection, the document shall be deemed “Confidential” or “Confidential-27 Attorneys Eyes Only” only if labeled or marked in conformity with paragraph 2, with 28 access and dissemination limited as set forth in paragraphs 10-13.

1 7. Information disclosed at a deposition or other testimony may be 2 designated as “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” at the time of the 3 testimony or deposition, or within ten (10) days following receipt of the transcript, and 4 shall be subject to the provisions of this Order. Additional information disclosed 5 during a deposition or other testimony may be designated as “Confidential” or 6 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” by notifying the other party, in writing, within 7 ten (10) days after receipt of the transcript, of the specific pages of the transcript that 8 should also be so designated. Unless otherwise agreed on the record of the deposition 9 or other testimony, all transcripts shall be treated as “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes 10 Only” for a period of ten (10) days after their receipt, and the transcript shall not be 11 disclosed by a non-designating party to persons other than those persons named or 12 approved according to paragraphs 11-13 to review documents or materials designated 13 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” on behalf of that non-designating party.

14 8. All exhibits, pleadings, discovery responses, documents or things, 15 testimony or other submissions, filed with the Court pursuant to this action that have 16 been designated “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only,” by any party, 17 or any pleading or memorandum purporting to reproduce, paraphrase, or otherwise 18 disclose such information designated as Confidential Information, shall be marked 19 with the legend “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” and shall be 20 maintained by the Court in camera by filing the same in the Clerk’s Office in sealed 21 envelopes or other appropriate sealed containers on which shall be endorsed the title 22 and docket number of this action, an indication of the nature of the contents of such 23 sealed envelope or other container, the legend “Confidential” and a statement 24 substantially in the following form:

25 This envelope, containing documents that are filed in this action by (name of 26 party), is not to be opened nor are the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed 27 except by order of the Court or agreement of the parties.
28

27 attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

28

1 10. Material designated as “Confidential” that has been obtained from a party 2 during the course of this proceeding may be disclosed or made available only to the 3 Court, to Trial Counsel for any party, and to the persons designated below and only 4 subject to paragraphs 12-13:

5 (a) A party, or an officer, director, or designated employee of a party deemed 6 necessary by Trial Counsel to aid in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this 7 action;

8 (b) Independent experts or consultants (together with their clerical staff) 9 retained by such Trial Counsel to assist in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of 10 this action;

11 (c) Court reporter(s) employed in this action;

12 (d) Agents of Trial Counsel needed to perform various services such as, for 13 example, copying, drafting of exhibits, and support and management services,

15 encoding, loading into a computer and storing and maintaining for information control
16 and retrieval purposes, transcripts of depositions, hearings, trials, pleadings, exhibits
17 marked by a party, or attorneys’ work product, all of which may contain material
18 designated Confidential;

19 (e) Witnesses in any deposition or other proceeding of this action;

20 (f) Any other persons as to whom the parties in writing agree.

21 11. Material designated as “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” that has been 22 obtained from a party during the course of this proceeding may be disclosed or made 23 available only to the Court, to Trial Counsel for any party, and to the persons 24 designated below and subject to paragraphs 12-13:

25 (a) Independent experts or consultants (together with their clerical 26 staff) retained by such Trial Counsel to assist in the prosecution, defense, or 27 settlement of this action;

28

1 (b) Respective authors and recipients of any material bearing a 2 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” legend;

3 (c) Court reporter(s) employed in this action;

4 (d) Agents of Trial Counsel needed to perform various services such 5 as, for example, copying, drafting of exhibits, and support and management services, 6 including vendors retained by the parties, or by counsel for parties, for the purpose of 7 encoding, loading into a computer and storing and maintaining for information control
8 and retrieval purposes, transcripts of depositions, hearings, trials, pleadings, exhibits
9 marked by a party, or attorneys’ work product, all of which may contain material
10 designated Confidential-Attorney Eyes Only;

11 (e) Witnesses in any deposition or other proceeding in this action who 12 are the author or recipient of the “Confidential-Attorney Eyes Only” material, or who, 13 based on evidence, have seen the material in the past; and

14 (f) Any other persons as to whom the parties in writing agree.

15 12. Any officer, director, or designated employee of a party under paragraph 16 10(a) or individuals identified under paragraphs 10(b) and 11(a) having access to 17 Confidential Information shall be given a copy of this order before being shown such 18 Confidential Information, and its provisions shall be explained to them by an attorney.
19 Each person, before having access to the Confidential Information, shall agree not to 20 disclose to anyone any Confidential Information not exempted by this order and not to 21 make use of any such Confidential Information other than solely for purpose of this 22 litigation, and shall acknowledge in writing by signing a document in the form of 23 Exhibit “B” attached hereto, that he or she is fully conversant with the terms of this 24 Order and agrees to comply with it and be bound by it. Witnesses being shown 25 Confidential Information at a deposition or proceeding shall not be allowed to retain 26 copies of the Confidential Information. However, a witness who was shown 27 Confidential Information during a deposition may review the Confidential Information 28 while reviewing his or her transcript, provided that any Confidential Information is 1 not retained by the witness after he or she has completed his or her review of the 2 transcript for accuracy.

3 13. For the purpose of this Protective Order an independent expert or 4 consultant shall be defined as a person, who has not been and is not an employee of a 5 party or scheduled to become an employee in the near future, and who is retained or 6 employed as a consultant or expert for purposes of this litigation, either full or part-7 time, by or at the direction of counsel of a party.

8 14. If any party desires at a hearing to offer into evidence Confidential 9 Information, or to use Confidential Information in such a way as to reveal its nature or 10 contents, such offers or use shall be made only upon the taking of all steps reasonably 11 available to preserve the confidentiality of such Confidential Information, which may 12 include the offering of such Confidential Information outside the presence of persons 13 other than court personnel and counsel.

14 15. Any Confidential Information may be used in the course of any 15 deposition taken of the party producing such Confidential Information or its 16 employees without consent, or otherwise used in any deposition with the consent of 17 the party producing such Confidential Information, subject to the condition that when 18 such Confidential Information is so used, the party who made the designation may 19 notify the reporter that the portion of the deposition in any way pertaining to such 20 Confidential Information or any portion of the deposition relevant thereto is being 21 taken pursuant to this Order. Further, whenever any Confidential Information is to be 22 discussed or disclosed in a deposition, any party claiming such confidentiality may 23 exclude from the room any person not entitled to receive such confidential 24 information pursuant to the terms of this Order.

25 16. A Receiving Party who objects to the designation of any discovery 26 response, document or thing or testimony as “Confidential” or “Confidential-27 Attorneys Eyes Only” shall state the objection by letter to counsel for the Producing 28 Party. Parties shall make a good faith effort to avoid the Court’s involvement to 1 resolve disputes. If the objection cannot be resolved within ten (10) days following 2 receipt of the objection, the Receiving Party may move the Court to determine 3 whether the discovery response, document or thing or testimony at issue qualifies for 4 treatment as “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only.” If the Receiving 5 Party files such a motion, the discovery response, document or thing or testimony at 6 issue will continue to be entitled to the protections accorded by this Protective Order 7 until and unless the Court rules otherwise. If the Receiving Party files such a motion, 8 the Producing Party shall bear the burden of establishing that the discovery response, 9 document or thing or testimony at issue qualifies for treatment as “Confidential” or 10 “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only.” Nothing herein shall operate as an admission by 11 any Party that any particular discovery response, document or thing or testimony 12 contains “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only” Information for 13 purposes of determining the merits of the claims in this litigation. A party shall not be 14 obligated to challenge the propriety of the designation of any discovery response, 15 document or thing or testimony at the time such designation is made; failure to do so 16 shall not preclude a subsequent challenge within a reasonable time. Further, a Party’s 17 failure to challenge a designation during pretrial discovery shall not preclude a 18 subsequent challenge of such designation at trial or in connection with the submission 19 of any discovery response, document or thing or testimony to the Court for any 20 purpose.

21 17. Notwithstanding anything contrary herein, if a party through 22 inadvertence or mistake produces discovery of any Confidential Information without 23 marking it with the legend “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorneys Eyes Only,” or 24 by designating it with an incorrect level of confidentiality, the producing party may 25 give written notice to the receiving party that the exhibit, pleading, discovery 26 response, document or thing, or testimony contains Confidential Information and 27 should be treated as such in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order.
28 Upon receipt of such notice, and upon receipt of properly marked materials, the 1 receiving party shall return said unmarked materials and not retain copies thereof, and 2 must treat such exhibits, pleadings, discovery responses, documents or things, or 3 testimony as Confidential Information and shall cooperate in restoring the 4 confidentiality of such Confidential Information. The inadvertent or unintentional 5 disclosure by a party of Confidential Information, regardless of whether the 6 information was so designated at the time of disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver 7 in whole or in part of a party's claim of confidentiality either as to the specific 8 information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto or on the same or 9 related subject matter, provided that the non-producing party is notified and properly 10 marked documents are supplied as provided herein. The receiving party shall not be 11 responsible for the disclosure or other distribution of belatedly designated 12 Confidential Information as to such disclosure or distribution that may occur before 13 the receipt of such notification of a claim of confidentiality and such disclosure or 14 distribution shall not be deemed to be a violation of this Protective Order, yet the 15 receiving party must take reasonable steps to retrieve the Confidential Information.

16 18. Documents and things produced or made available for inspection may be 17 subject to redaction, in good faith by the producing party, of sensitive material that is 18 subject to the attorney-client privilege or to work-product immunity. Each such 19 redaction, regardless of size, will be clearly labeled. This paragraph shall not be 20 construed as a waiver of any party's right to seek disclosure of redacted information.

21 19. Neither the taking of or the failure to take any action to enforce the 22 provisions of this Order, nor the failure to object to any designation or any such action 23 or omission, shall constitute a waiver of any signatory's right to seek and obtain 24 protection or relief with respect to any claim or defense in this action or any other 25 action including, but not limited to, the claim or defense that any information is or is 26 not proprietary to any party, is or is not entitled to particular protection or that such 27 information embodies trade secret or other confidential information of any party. The 28 procedures set forth herein shall not affect the rights of the parties to object to

1 discovery on grounds other than those related to trade secrets or other confidential 2 information claims, nor shall it relieve a party of the necessity of proper responses to 3 discovery requests.

4 20. This Order shall not abrogate or diminish any contractual, statutory, or 5 other legal obligation or right of any party to this Order, as to any third party, with 6 respect to any Confidential Information. The fact that Information is designated 7 “Confidential” or “Confidential-Attorney’s Eyes Only” under this Order shall not be 8 deemed to be determinative of what a trier of fact may determine to be confidential or 9 proprietary. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to bring 10 before the Court the question of:

- 11 (a) Whether any particular information is or is not Confidential Information;
- 12 (b) Whether any particular information is or is not entitled to a greater or 13 lesser degree of protection than provided hereunder; or
- 14 (c) Whether any particular information is or is not relevant to any issue in 15 this case; provided that in doing so the party complies with the foregoing procedures.

16 21. The terms of the Protective Order are applicable to Confidential 17 Information produced by a non-party, and Confidential Information produced by a 18 non-party in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief 19 provided by the Protective Order. To protect its own Confidential Information, a 20 party may ask a non-party to execute a document in the form of Exhibit A.

21 22. Within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of this litigation, all 22 information designated as Confidential Information, except such documents or 23 information which incorporate or are incorporated into attorney work product (a single 24 copy of which may be retained in counsel’s file), shall, upon request, be returned to 25 the producing party, destroyed or disposed of pursuant to the instructions of the 26 producing party.

27 23. The restrictions provided for above shall not terminate upon the 28 conclusion of this lawsuit, but shall continue until further order of this Court. This

1 Protective Order is without prejudice to the right of a party hereto to seek relief from 2 the Court, upon good cause shown, from any of the provisions or restrictions provided 3 herein, including seeking modifications to the Protective Order that may broaden or 4 restrict the rights of access to and use of Protected Materials.

5 II. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS TO ENTER INTO THE STIPULATED
6 PROTECTIVE ORDER

7 1. Good cause exists for this Court to enter the Stipulated Protective Order, 8 because disclosure of any Confidential Information would harm the parties financially 9 and allow competitors to gain unfair advantage. Competitors will gain an unfair 10 advantage over the parties if they learn the parties' Confidential Information, such as 11 their financial information, accounting information, customer lists, vendor lists, costs 12 or profit structure, sales information and sources, vendor sources, retail channels, 13 product lines, business and marketing strategy, or information concerning distribution 14 or operations. The Confidential Information should be protected, because it reveals 15 the parties' current financial status, business strategy, business structure, future 16 opportunities and efforts, the quality of the products, the manufacturing times and 17 sources, and retail prices and costs. This information will give others an unfair price 18 and time advantage and allow them to unfairly compete in the market and usurp the 19 parties' business opportunities, to the detriment of the parties.

20 2. Good cause further exists in that this Stipulation would allow for both 21 parties to disclose documents required for the litigation of this matter without 22 suffering from both an economic and business detriment that would result from the 23 disclosure of Confidential Information to their competitors and/or to the public.
