PROCEEDINGS: Order Setting Settlement Conference (In Chambers)

This matter having been referred to Magistrate Judge Patrick J. Walsh for a settlement conference, IT IS ORDERED that a settlement conference be held on July 14, 2010, at 11:00 a.m., 312 N. Spring Street, Courtroom 827B (8th Floor), Los Angeles, CA. The parties, lead trial counsel, and persons whose consent is necessary to conclude a settlement are required to attend the settlement conference. If a proposed settlement must be presented for approval to a board or committee, the person who is responsible for making a recommendation to the board or committee must be present (or available by telephone if granted permission by the court).

Each side shall submit a settlement conference statement directly to Judge Walsh's chambers by fax (213) 894-5734 not later than two (2) court days before the conference. These statements are to be exchanged with opposing counsel. The statements shall not be filed with the clerk's office, shall be brief (five pages or less), and may include: a summary of the important issues, the party's position on each issue, information regarding damages in non-conclusionary form, and the course of negotiations up to that point. Each side may also submit a brief confidential statement, which need not be served on opposing counsel, the contents of which will not be communicated to the other side.

* If a party believes that now is not a good time to conduct settlement negotiations, counsel shall submit a stipulation and proposed order requesting a continuance of the settlement conference.
