Case No.: 2:10-cv-01360-SVW-PJW

CORRECTED AFFIDAVIT OF ILIANA LLANERAS PURSUANT TO THE COURT'S ORDER ON APRIL 19, 2010 REGARDING
PLAINTIFFS' RICO AND EXTORTION CAUSES OF ACTION

1 I, Iliana Llaneras, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

2
3 1. My name is Iliana Llaneras. I am a resident of the State of California,
4 and am over the age of 18, and if called to testify in court or other proceeding I
5 could and would give the following testimony which is based on my own personal
6
7 knowledge unless otherwise stated.

8
9 2. I make this declaration to correct the record in this case and my prior
10 declaration made and filed on May 3, 2010. I have since learned that at the time I
11 filed my May 3, 2010 Declaration, I was mistaken as to the substance of the 12 telephone conversations that I described overhearing therein.

14 3. After reviewing documents that were previously solely in the 15 possession of Defendants, I now believe that the descriptions of the telephone
16 conversations in my May 3, 2010 declaration were not accurate. I had also 17 confused some of what I overheard with some of what I had read in emails. I was 18 also somewhat confused in my memory and had drawn some erroneous
19 assumptions about what might have been discussed between Ed Magedson and my 20 husband based on reviewing Mr. Magedson's prior declarations filed with this 21 Court.
22
23

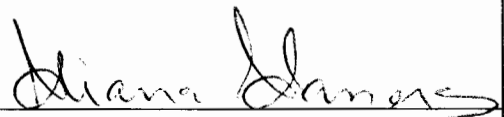

24
25 4. I do specifically recall overhearing a telephone conversation in which 26 money was discussed. I do not recall what day it was. I was returning to the office
27 when Mr. Mobrez instructed me to pick up the phone by using hand signals. I then 28

1 proceeded to my office and began listening to the conversation from another line. I
2 immediately identified Mr. Mobrez's voice. I was unable to recognize the voice on
3 the other end of the telephone line. I do not know whether the other man on the 4 call was Ed Magedson, or from the Ripoff Report or otherwise. The two men were 5 discussing money as I listened to the call. I only listened for a short period of time.
6
7

8 5. I sincerely apologize to this Honorable Court, Defendants and counsel
9 for my confusion and lapse in judgment in attempting to reconstruct my memories
10 of the times and dates of what I heard. I did overhear such calls, but Exhibit A to 11 my prior declaration were not notes taken at the time, but notes of my confused
12 efforts to reconstruct the exact details of the calls. This was based on a
13 combination of imperfect memory, documents I located at the time, and erroneous
14 assumptions drawn from Mr. Magedson's prior declarations, and I sincerely
15 apologize for the error.
16
17
18

19 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under 20 the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
